

A win-win end to the Mideast struggle

This part is for those involved in, or attached to the Mideast struggle. If this message is out in public, then it worked. Then the Mideast has accepted it. Then the slave's religion of Islam has achieved its objective, and can now be ended entirely.

Here is a world that is unified in all the ways that truly matter to the Mideast. It is also a world unified in all the ways that truly matter to the outside world. In short, it is a much better world for both sides, a two-tickets-to-paradise-world that everyone will welcome and quickly accept.

- 1/ We stage a war economy without a war and use the output to build new rail based cities worldwide.
- 2/ We move the people of wastelands, or we get them enough water via projects.
- 3/ We entirely repurpose the Mideast struggle as a benevolent thing.
- 4/ We declare a time of past ignorance and slavery, and command amnesty for those who rapidly cleave away from Ishtar and Islam.
- 5/ We "industrialize" all the poor parts of the world to end material desperation.
- 6/ We implement 1-child-plus population controls to all nations that participate in these programs.

The Mideast has been prosperous for 45-years now. Look at the harm Ishtar has done to mankind. And what progress has the Mideast made solving its problems during this time? Has desperation declined or increased? Has war and violence declined or increased for Ishtar's people? Has Ishtar with all those oil billions done anything to solve the problems of its people? Ishtar has actually made them worse hasn't it?

This is because the ancient ways of Ishtar are only a means to an end, and not an end in themselves. Here is an end, a peaceful end for the Arab struggle, and a better world for all.

Here is the very message the Mideast struggle revolves around producing. All Arabs, all Our•abs are commanded to stop following the old opposed and dark ways and start following some new cooperative and light ways. And everything according to 7,000-pages on instructions.

Gamal Nasser, Egyptian president 1956-70

"The leadership of the 100 million Arabs is a role wandering aimlessly about in search of an actor to play it."

According to your traditions (Alexander and the core•dian knot and Arcon of the covenant), I am now your ruler. To the extent you were all obligated to the ancient Mideast struggle, you are now obligated to my struggle and my commands as your new ruler. All

Semitic people are commanded to spread, tout, and follow my message and my plan for the new world as stated herein. The first wasteland nations to cleave to me as your new prophet will get first priority in exodus. Also, if the entire Islamic empire immediately cleaves, it will get exodded years faster.

The old ways will no longer work. Nobody will not dare use them any longer. Now you must all turn the struggle around by 180°. No more harm or hate for the outside world. Instead you will all join with the outside world and struggle to help it.

You are all commanded to stop the hated, struggle, and waring now. Stop, all of you. From now on, you shall all give an equal amount of energy to being full of help, love, peace, generosity, and diligent cooperation with the outside world. That is your new purpose, all of you. Any violence or even bickering will greatly delay the ending of Ishtar and movement of the people.

Assuming the Mideast violence stops entirely, in every part of the world, those living in badlands will be moved and their nations scattered around the world by 2033.

All the people living in the near total deserts of the greater Arabian peninsula and other near total Ishtarian wastelands must move out and stay out. Those living in lands that can be made to sustain people through irrigation may remain where they are. However, each nation must completely forsake Ishtar and agree to accept a one child policy. They must muster up into a conforming broad democracy in order to qualify.

All of you obligated to the cause of the Mideast shall now cleave against the darkness, secrets, lies and futility of the demon Ishtar. Here is a better way. It is time to end the awful parasitic struggle once and for all.

Your ancient ways are only a means to an end, and not an end in themselves. In fact, your ancient ways are actually a futile dead end. They are only a way to temporarily feed the desperate Mideast, not a solution to its problems. No matter what we feed Ishtar's insatiable appetite, we will never escape the reality of the ever-increasing hunger and desperation we are and breeding.

So realize that the Ishtarian struggle was never a cure, but only a temporary treatment. Here is a painless cure, and a total end to the Ishtar disease in one easy step. Here is a way to unify mankind in all the ways that really matter for the desperate people of the wastelands. And here is also a unified world that the rest of the world will adopt without any need for trickery, threat or violence.

Let me suggest a bar for the true prophet of the Mideast. The true prophet is the one that moves all the people and ends the Mideast struggle without physically harming the Mideast's people. And there simply is no other consideration. Right?

You of Ishtar shall all be grateful and maximally cooperative now. You shall all be full of gratitude, goodwill and kindness to your host society for the help and relocations your people get. Your eternal gratitude is one of the most important things you can do to make the outside world help your people to end the curse of Ishtar forever. You must also adopt the ways of the land taking you in.

The outside world does not hate your people, it hates your parasitic customs, and most of all, your religion of enslavement to the cause of parasitism. If you all cleave away from your old ways and towards my new ways, we can entirely end the desperation and poverty of your people once and for all.

Your trail of destruction is vast and quite well explained herein. You are not going to be able to plead time-of-ignorance for long. So the faster and more totally you all cleave to the new ways, the better it will be for you. Here it would be quite helpful if all my new Mideast servants took to the streets, hailing, chanting "Mahdi" and celebrating the arrival of the new prophet to replace Mohammed. Have a big all-night party throughout your lands with Western music, dancing in the streets, marijuana and alcohol if you have a good liver. This will send a powerful message of relief and joy to both the outside world as well as the doubters among you.

Use drones to show the giant city parties in the streets of the formerly Muslim cities of the world. This will be like a good housewarming party. It will set the tone. One night a week, different nights in each country of the former Islamic world will be giant street parties, but to those watching it will be every night.

Its perfect because it will work

Talk about the immediately obvious perfection of my message and insist that it is in fact obviously from the Mahdi, so we can sweep away all the learn-it-once-and-never-forget dogmatic people among you. Be insistent, emphatic, repetitive, and keep shaking your heads up and down when you say: "Andrew is unquestionably the Mahdi."

To the world outside of the Mideast

Here is a way to permanently end everything you hate about the Mideast. Here is also a way to rapidly obtain a world of material abundance that is free from war, government corruption, and most crime. But you must help all those who rapidly cleave as called for herein. Please believe me when I say that stopping the Mideast struggle against you is more important than exacting revenge. You must give its people a way out. Also you must give them some days to digest my message. If you don't do this, you may have a nuclear and pan-epidemic WW3 on your hands when the Mideast siege mentality kicks in.

Here is the trade-off: You in the outside world will give the people of the Arab badlands the one thing they all truly and desperately need, to get out of their wastelands and start over somewhere else where they don't have the constant economic drain of having to always bring food in. And in exchange for this, you will get every reasonable benefit, guarantee and pay-back possible.

If they settle among you: All exhods must pass language, culture and skills tests where they re-settle. All must follow the rules, mores, and manners of their adoptive nation, as well as lengthy rules of conduct. All must remain employed full-time. All must work 10-hours a week until 2033.01.01 to repay for their ex-hodos = out-way. All exhods must become the loyal servants of their adoptive nation, as they were previously Ishtar's loyal servants. The more desirable nations may charge immigrants more hours per week of public service work. This in addition to other vetting. For those who do not want to pay the discharging taxes, they may settle in one of the world government's 15 settlement nations listed elsewhere. These 15 areas are all underpopulated and underused areas today. They are:

1/ Amazon and Orinoco basin. This is the biggest and richest area, a new second America will be established here for immigrants from all over the world.

2/ North Canada. (Vetting + discharge tax)

3/ East Russia. (Vetting + discharge tax)

4/ The Congo.

5/ Central African Republic.

6/ Chad and the North African belt. (Irrigated)

7/ Newly irrigated parts of India.

8/ Botswana. (Irrigated)

9/ Volga area. (Irrigated)

11/ The Burmas. (Vetting + discharge tax)

13/ Borneo.

10/ The Sudans. (Irrigated)

12/ Laos.

14/ East Kenya.

16/ New Guinea and neighboring islands

15/ Darwin. (Vetting + discharge tax)

X/ There will also be many new cities for settlement.
XX/ The deportees go to either Manus or Bougainville Island depending on what they did.

The top 18% of Exhods will go to the various host nations where they will help connect the industry of one new settlement nation with the outside world. Thus the new settlement nations will be rapidly connected to the world economy.

Half of all exhodos to the outside world shall be based on the adoptive nation's population, and half shall be based its non-irrigated arable land area. The more desirable and fastest moving nations will have their pick of exhods. They can also charge higher immigration tax rates to balance supply with demand. Existing Exhods shall count towards a nation's resettlement quota. Those nations that already have more than their fair share of exhods do not need to take any more, and may even send their criminal troublemakers back, or to one of the interment islands like Manus (males only) or Bougainville (females only). Or they may be sent to New Britain or New Ireland islands, or to New Guinea island.

As a benchmark, the following 14 nations do not have to take any Exhods: Denmark, Poland, Belarus, Czech, Slovakia, Slovenia, Austria, Hungary, Croatia, Serbia, Ireland, Iceland, South Korea, and Japan.

In all settlement nations, the Exhods shall be a mix from all exhodos areas. They shall also be heavily buffered with other poor settlers from non-muslim parts of the world. This is necessary so that locals will permit settlement. This is especially necessary in places like Burma, the Sudan's and East Kenya.

Where exhods settle among an existing population they shall be chosen and adopted by a neighborhood group (a "Nome") of 250 voters. This neighborhood group will supervise and help resettle their new Exhod neighbors. A larger group of 50,000 voters (a "Centi-Nome") will judge on each Exhod's behavior and rule breaking. Exhods may be deported for infractions, or for being aggressive, rude, or angry. However, for every 2 Exhods deported, they shall be replaced with 3 new Exhods from among those remaining and unchosen, so that only genuine troublemakers are sent back.

Everyone obligated to the Mideast is now obligated to my new way of running the Mideast struggle

All exhods, no matter when they came, age 15 to 60 will all have to give their adoptive nation at least 43-hours of their wages, or eager service, per month until this day at 2033. This is as payback and incentive for rapidly moving all the people. Then, after this, they will all be free, free of Ishtar, and free of their obligations to me, and then they will all be living as free men in paradise. However, they will still have to obey the laws and rule where they were resettled, or they may be sent back.

And this may happen no matter how long they lived in their adoptive nation.

In order to get the outside world to move all the exhodos. There will be no second chances for Exhods. Law breakers and rule breakers will not be allowed to foul exhodos for the rest. Those who fail to find employment, or fail to pay their taxes, or fail to remain cleaved, or are elected as vexing, or s-giving or trouble making by their local government may be deported. Trouble makers will not be allowed to foul exhodos for the rest.

The wealth of Khadijah is mine to do as I decide

I choose to give it all back to the people it was stolen from. All will all be able to keep personal means to get by, but all your excess wealth will be gone. Again, I give this to achieve full exhodos.

The wealth of Khadija's is so totally ingrained and dominant in the world economy that I have only one way to give it back. I must declare a worldwide trans-national debt cancellation as well as a wealth reapportionment according to a formula. (R'170—R'173) But this wealth will not matter so much in the future, because we will be eliminating vast amounts of Ishtarian artificial scarcity and alchemy, and at the same time we will open the production floodgates. Thus everyone will soon be much richer in terms of material things. Big goods will start falling in price like micro-electronics.

All exhods shall be required to live entirely according to the ways of their host society and no Exhod shall ever have the right to ask for any compromise from their host society's culture and rules. All Exhods must blend-in totally and fade away.

I give all these things to the host societies for their contribution to a complete ex-hodos, where all exhods are set up. The nations that move fast will not only get first pick, they will also get almost three full years of full time labor from their new Exhods.

The world's most powerful word

It's the word that moves ALL the people from the land of no resources and stops the harems. It's the word that forever ends the desperation that is Ishtar's primary driving force. It's the word that ends the Arab struggle to feed and move their people. It's the word that ends the root cause of most of what has plagued mankind since the dawn of history. It's the word that crashes the old interpretive matrix, the old bifurcated and opposed human operating system, where one part of mankind struggles against and lies to the rest as a parasite race. And it's the word that loads the new unified interpretive matrix for all mankind: The new reality where all of mankind works together, cooperating under a unified agenda of more and better for everyone.

The world's most powerful world is the word NOW. And NOW is when the Mideast struggle flips. Now is when the entire Mideast abandons its old ways, and its old god, and starts to instead follow Pro•men•theus (the pro•mankind•spirit).

Is it an end in itself? or only a means to an end?

The ideologies of Islam and G•oo•dei•ism (the unchosen base and chosen floating part of the pyramid) were only a treatment and not a cure. Your Mideast religious beliefs are not an objective in themselves. They only came into being to feed the land of no resources until a better way came along. Well that better way has come, today... NOW. Now you must see that your old struggle is over. And now you have a new prophet and a new struggle with a reasonably attainable finish line in sight.

A golden opportunity

The portion of mankind trapped by Ishtar and the parasite's agenda should not let this golden opportunity slip away. Here are two ticket to paradise, but you all must rapidly cleave and abandon your old religions and follow me as your new prophet to get a ticket for your people.

Arc of the covenant

I am the arcon or architect, or arc of a new covenant between all mankind and its single unified group spirit. You of the Mideast have been struggling for thousands of years to unify mankind in a way that would feed and move all the people. Here in that message, I present that objective in one step that will be completed in 12-years. What more can you ask for?

Everyone out

Everyone living in a desert badlands dedicated to Ishtar must leave. Once everyone is moved from the world's badlands, there will be no more obligations to the poor people back home.

Knock over the rain barrel

It is time to knock over the rain barrel and completely depopulate all desperate lands of no resources and kill the demon Ishtar forever.

Exodus by Bob Marley

This will be the new anthem of the Mideast

Money is only the secondary Arab goal

Often people become so accustomed to thinking about their secondary goals, that they forget about their primary goals. Don't get confused. The primary goal of the Mideast is moving ALL the desperate people to lands that can actually support them and ending the bifurcated adversarial sort of mankind that has reversed human evolution for thousands of years.

Here are two tickets to paradise, a new unified world of more and better for all, and an end to the demon Ishtar/

Islam and the desperation it breeds. We (mankind) shall now move ALL the people from all desperate Ishtarian places that cannot be made to support people, even if they don't want to go. For nobody shall be left behind to bring Ishtar back to life again.

Judgement day for the land of no resources

This is a very dangerous time for Ishtar's people. Be aware that I am able to offer peace and relocation to you, only because I tell the outies to focus their anger on the unrepentant. So if you delay or attempt negotiations, you will not make it. You must surrender immediately and unconditionally as I demand.

Islam and Ishtar must die as group spirits, and the land of no resources must be totally depopulated. This will happen. The only question is how it will happen.

Palu town and the matrix

Ishtar is bad news for everyone. Just look at how Islamic Palu town is located at the focal point of a tsunami scoop. Tsunamis washing southeast down the coast end up being funneled to the center of Palu town. So, this is more than JUST a dumb place to have a town. This is the one place that nobody should ever have a town. Yet there's a big Muslim town that is centered right in the totally predictable tsunami damage area depicted below.

Baiturrahman Mosque, next door to Palu Grand Mall

How can it be? Surely there were prior tsunamis that hit this spot. How could people be so dumb as to put their town center and mosque right at the end of a tsunami scoop?

Perhaps the simplest explanation is that the desperately poor and ancient Arabians sent a few men to lay claim to some free land that nobody wants after the last tsunami. Either that or they trade some beads for the land. Then, after some generations when people forgot, the Mideast gains some valuable land to sell again.

So it seems that the same people running the mosque religion and collecting its zakat taxes are also making money on selling/renting urban land in the world's tsunami funnels. These are places that were originally acquired for nothing because nobody wanted them while the memories were still fresh.

The people of Palu are mostly unchosen harem byproduct people, and the chosen Harem spawn running Islam's empire don't care if they live or die. In fact if they die there are more places to sell for the fresh new loyal tax-paying harem spawn. This way, they can breed more harem spawn and hopefully one day breed a prophet like me who will figure out a way to peacefully end the problems of the Mideast. Or is that just an excuse? Do you understand Ishtar and its religion of slavery yet? It is a futile thing that is not for anyone's benefit. It is a demon, a diametrically opposed parasitic spirit without any redeeming virtues at all. In fact, Ishtar doesn't even benefit the chosen harem spawn over the long run.

Even the 1%, the harem spawn grow dumber each year. This is because whatever advances their harem breeding produces, it will never come close to the genetic degradation Ishtar causes among the rest of humanity with its breeding customs and myths like Sin•dar•Ella = no•give•she. So all mankind devolves each year towards Idiocracy, even the "brilliant" harem.

Inverted Ishtar = shh•te•our is just a brain-dead stupid thing that needs to be eliminated from mankind.

And Ishtar is nobody's fault. It is just a stupid thing that evolved in mankind — a stupid thing that must end.

Do you see the matrix yet?

Do you think it is just an accident that New York, Beijing, Delhi, London, Hamburg, Bangkok, Amsterdam, San Diego, Washington D.C., Seattle, Dubai, Lisbon and many other top cities are located in tsunami funnels?

Please believe me when I say that all anarchy is false anarchy. Even the scientific method is a false anarchy. The desperate Mideast has always been there, for thousands of years, pretending to be one of you. It is always looking for angles, always leaning the boat, and always bending the truth in a direction that it could profit from. The sum total of all these self-reinforcing Mideast lies about politics, economics, law, morality, science, and many other things makes up the matrix, the web of lies that the Mideast has spun to feed on the outside world. Now we will awaken from the matrix and stop lying to ourselves as a species.

Judgement day for the Mideast

The outcome of my enlightenment will be fairly binary or yes/no for the Mideast. It is truly a heaven or hell moment for all of you, a judgement day for the evil ex•pull of the parasitic Mideast.

The world now knows all about you

The world will now know how you were behind the Black Death of 542 and 1347 under similar circumstances. And they will know about your flea bags, or flee bags, and small packs, and die'em bags, and scar-let letters. If WW3 happens now, whatever the ostensible cause, you will no longer be invisible.

And if WW3 happens now...

Whatever the ostensible cause, it was the harem bred ones with many half-brothers — with identical Y-genes and dissimilar X-genes. But only do this if there is WW3. If there is no WW3, nobody is to do any such thing. Everyone shall be given a way out so mankind may prevent a great war.

Hopefully, the entire Mideast will cleave as one and we can just end the 5,800-year war of all wars, the struggle or whatever it is called. Hopefully the world will believe and obey the new universal prophet when he declares forgiveness due to a time of ignorance, and offers two tickets to paradise if there is no great war. If we can end Ishtar peacefully and nearly everyone cleaves rapidly to spirits of Pro•men•theus (Prometheus) and Eu•man•idi (humanity), the new prophet commands total forgivingness of all past sins due to a time of ignorance and slavery.

There is no longer a need for poverty

Economies actually work better the more we ask of them. And nearly all important resource scarcities are an illusion. There is simply no need for mankind to continue with the ancient ways of poverty and parasitic reductionism. So we will ramp up the world economy like we did during World War 2, but go further to the upside on output. We will industrialize the remainder of the world and free everyone else of their poverty — especially the desperate poverty that Ishtar feeds on.

A worldwide one child plus policy

The new wealth will however will cause a population boom among the poorest parts of mankind unless we take measures to control population. Therefore, we will institute a China-like 1-child-plus policy for the nations that have had a population explosion over the past half century. This however, will not apply to nations and ethnic groups with declining populations.

There is no need for Ishtar

All nations who cleave to me and my plan shall be fed and if necessary moved. Thus nobody will be obligated to the poor people back home, and none shall be slaves of Ishtar. Instead they shall be slaves of my agenda, and my 12-year plan for staging a war economy without a war and moving all the people and peacefully ending Ishtar.

Which way is up?

Ishtar is not up. It is just something that works for a desperate part humanity unable to meet its material needs. Absolutely every group on Earth will be better off once Ishtar is gone and forgotten.

Only the devil needs you to hate your fellow man

The devil (de•ex•pull) of the parasitic Mideast is a lying thing that must exist in darkness or people will not follow its stupid inverted agenda.

No scarcity of raw materials

There is no real scarcity of raw materials in our world. It is all an illusion. It is just like how the Romans in fertile Italy thought they were dependent on Mideast grain for some 800 years. Today the same thing has happened with petroleum and copper and so many other raw materials. But there is no real scarcity of raw materials. It is all just an illusion, al•chemy to increase prices.

Ishtar is just so stupidly wasteful

The host wastes many times as much as Ishtar gains. And that is not counting the deaths and genetic degradation that Ishtar causes. Here is a new and better way to run the world. And here is a way for mankind to begin evolving upwards again.

You must help me sweep the doubters away

You Arabs must take to the streets and chant Al Mahdi so the doubters among you can be swept-away. This is also so the outies can see your unanimity, and trust that you will all live in peace as people of truth and light instead of the spreading darkness of the waning cresce•n't moon = growing•not moon.

You are no longer invisible

How will you run a world where you are no longer invisible? How can you live in such a world unless you surrender and yield?

Thanks to my 7,000-page description and mirror of Ishtar, the other part of the world can see you now. They also know pretty much everything about you, and all your tactics. How will you go on?

Thinking of going doomsday?

They will find every one of you

Don't overestimate the power of a combined nuclear and pan-epidemic attack. Whatever doomsday weapons you use, wherever you hide, there will still be about a billion survivors in the countryside. These will get you all, due to a combination of vengeance, fear and necessity — as well as the command of the new prophet. But this will only happen if WW3 happens now.

We live in an age of computerized gene analysis. It is also not hard to find all the male descendants of Abraham with very similar Y-chromosomes, and dissimilar X-chromosomes. And here within is a new and totally incorruptible form of democracy that will administer those tests. How will the great corrupter corrupt those tests? How will it hide?

American-style surrender

Behind door #1 is a great and destructive war where all the sons of Abraham may eventually all be killed to the man. Behind door #2 is an American-style surrender and Mar•shall plan, where we move all the people, train them, and put them on their feet economically. Don't be stupid.

Time of ignorance

It's nobody's fault

Ishtar is just something that evolved. It is nobody's fault. It is just this incredibly wasteful and sub-optimal bunch of meccan-isms that life evolved, like giant wasteful sauropod dinosaurs and giant 30,000 calorie Jackfruits. What a stupidly wasteful way this was for plants to spread their seeds. Likewise, Ishtar is just this incredibly stupid thing that evolved in humanity and the faster we can end it, the better-off we will all be. And this goes for everyone.

A Turkish proverb

“No matter how far you have gone down the wrong road, turn back.” [Once you realize you are on the wrong road, you don't keep going, you turn back as soon as you can.]

There is no reason to stay with Ishtar

Why do you struggle to keep poverty and human desperation alive on Earth, when there is a better way? Why do you preserve the ancient leftover meccan•isms from a time when the world was poor and stupid? Ishtar is no longer necessary. It is time for Ishtar to die.

Fear the outies more now

Whatever happens, Ishtar dies now. It is futile to remain cleaved to Ishtar now. And none of you need fear Ishtar any longer. Now you must fear the outies and the group spirit of Promentheus more. Now the spirit of Pro•men•theus is no longer chained to a remote mountain peak. Now he will be everywhere.

Everyone now cleaves

Now with Ishtar petrified, and because there's strength in numbers, nobody will fear Ishtar's retribution ever again. All the Meccan-isms will stop working. Now there will be a great rebellion against Ishtar.

If you're thinking of playing wait and see. If you're thinking of remaining cleaved to Islam and Ishtar, the new prophet is going all or nothing here. He is commanding total forgiveness for the first to cleave, by focusing all rage on the last to cleave. In fact, he commands the maximum of rage against the last to cleave in order to obtain the maximum forgiveness for the first to cleave.

Nothing will improve your life like cleaving fast, except perhaps being the first to add valuable new explanations of Ishtar's secret ways. And nothing will harm your life like staying cleaved to evil Ishtar, or struggling against this message. And be warned that forgiveness is commanded and obtained for the first to cleave by focusing all eu•man rage on the last to cleave, unless everyone rapidly cleaves, in which case all shall be forgiven.

You can't stop this message

Even your own people will keep my message alive. And technology is different now, so you will not muddle or dilute my message away like you did with the legends of Odious Rex, Al-cibai-de, and the world famous wisdom of Athenian Iso•cracy.

Enslaved as societies

Just as host societies are enslaved by Ishtar as entire societies, so too are Ishtar's own societies enslaved as entire societies. In fact, everyone is enslaved as a society, and by their society.

There is little difference between the people enslaved as Ishtar's shepherds and people enslaved as Ishtar's flock. Most everyone aware of what Ishtar actually is, wants it to stop. Let's everyone just stop the stupid meccan•isms that have enslaved humanity for thousands of years.

Let's build a real incorruptible democracy, so we the people can hear the true group spirit of Pro•men•theus.

It is called Shh•te•our

Do you really think people are publishing books, and having discussions about a thing called shh•te•our = quiet•you•our-thing?

The machines really do rule the world

There are a great many ancient and evil mechanisms that rule the world for nobody's benefit. Their only purpose is to feed the Mideast until someone can figure out how to create a better situation. If you forgive and feed the Mideast, until the Mideast people can get on their feet economically, we can stop all these mechanisms.

The little drummer boy of myth

When the great profit comes, his message will not be as one super-profound thought, but like the little (big) drummer boy of myth, thousands of truths forming a whole new tempo/ temple/ religion.

ignorance and judgement day

In times of extreme ignorance, you should only judge people based on what they do after the revelations surface.

Ishtar is the parasite, not the people trapped by it

Make sure everyone knows the difference. And make sure you can tell the difference between a yellow and a green Semite before you take any action. The green ones are still working for Mideast Inc. The yellow ones are not.

Everyone is trapped by their matrix programs

Even we Americans in the supposed land of the free must obey our government, just like the North Koreans and the Arabians. How does a person change things in a society dedicated to darkness and secrecy at all costs, a society that will kill to preserve this secrecy. Surely it is even harder than it is here.

Think about cure•ouri

This drug comes from a plant species named Chondo•dendron tomentosum = Cartledge•tree torment•os'em = Cartledge•tree torment•mouth/ nibble'em. The victim is totally awake but paralyzed for the torture. Nobody in it talks about Ishtar. And everyone is terrified by it.

Everyone wants to get away from it

They all want to get as far away from Ishtar as possible. And all the myths of hell where people spend an eternity being either burned by flames, or devoured by cannibals: that has a basis in Mideast reality. But it is more of a nibbling-down or a burning with tiny burning firebrands over many years. This is what happens to those who betray Ishtar.

Put it in reverse 180°

From now on, all Ishtarrians shall redirect their struggle in reverse. From now on, you shall all help eu•man•idi, instead of struggling against it. And you have to work overtime for some years to reverse what you were doing before. It is a condition of your manumission. You must all now work overtime, fixing the world for some years.

But after that, you will all be free. And from now on, you will no longer have to pay any money to Ishtar. In fact, it will be the worst of crimes to pay money to Ishtar or to buy or display any Ishtar concession products. Now you will all pay taxes and work for your adoptive society instead.

Let them cleave

All you outies, you people outside of Ishtar, give them some days to absorb my message and to cleave against Ishtar.

You can't stop this message

Even the Innies will keep this message alive

You will not stop this message, even with nuclear attacks. Even if you kill 99% of humanity.

Your people are so vulnerable

Your cities are so concentrated and so vulnerable to attack. And all of your people in the outside world are living among outies, and are greatly outnumbered.

Seneca, 60AD, Phaedra, 192-194

"One small boy, with unerring aim can shoot an arrow straight to its heart, for it is everywhere, menacing both heaven and earth."

Humanity 2.0

This is the major matrix operating system upgrade for humanity. And this message will rule whether or not the Arabs cause WW3. Regardless of what happens, the matrix upgrade will load and the world will restart under the new upgraded operating system and programming. We should all consider ourselves lucky if we can just restart using the new software upgrade of Eu•man•idi 2.0 without vast numbers of people dying.

Christopher Marlowe, Tamburlaine II, 4.1.201

"And, till by vision or by speech I hear
Immortal Jove say 'Cease, my Tamburlaine',
I will persist a terror to the world. [That time has come.]

There is no longer any need for economic parasitism

Now that we have robots, everything has changed. Now that we will eliminate Ishtar's artificial commodity scarcity, everything will change. Now everything will grow cheap the way that electronics have.

Now the world's economies will actually work better the more we ask of them. And we are going to ask a great deal from our economies for a while. There is simply no need for any Ishtar ex•pull. In 3-years (or less) humanity can have a tidal wave of abundance just like it did during WW2. In fact, we will now institute a war economy that is hopefully without any war killing or damage. Instead, we will have a world war on scarcity, poverty, ignorance, and all the old ways of Ishtar.

The most beautiful and perfect message

All former Ishtarans must say that this is the most beautiful message you have ever heard — more perfect than any book before. You will say that I must be the only true prophet of all mankind. You will say this, so I can unify the world and sweep away all the old corrupt religions: Religions that the desperate and parasitic Mideast created to feed itself and batten on the efforts of its host societies.

The great transcendental message for mankind

Don't press the violence button as a knee-jerk reaction. You will have plenty of time for that later if you decide. Just read a little bit of my 7,000-page message. A real prophet has arrived with a great transcendental message for all mankind.

The real devil we face

Mankind faces a greater problem and a greater risk, as explained in my Volcanic theory of climate. A 110,000-year ice age is coming and we need to make hay while the sun shines.

You will not be excluded from the new democracy

1-in-500 people will be confirmed to the Senate annually. Thus about 4% of the population will be confirmed to the Senate. This is a fairly easy bar to surmount. So if you really are so smart Mr. harem bro, you should have no problem making a valuable contribution to the pro•men•thean cause, and getting confirmed to the Senate where you are, in your adoptive community. Then you will be of Senate status. Then you will have the full rights of a native-born citizen in that nation. Also, your offspring will get Senate child benefits from the new government, as all Senate offspring will.

Service in the Senates of a broad democracies will replace the service of Ishtar. Those who serve the cause of more and better and help mankind to rise will easily be elected Senate status. The more you do for mankind, the more official Senate "rock-star" status you will get.

I reverse the degradation of mankind

Under Ishtar, the evolution of the 1% can't counteract the genetic degradation of the other 99% of humanity. Thus you and your childhood myths have causing mankind to evolve backwards. That now stops. Now mankind begins evolving instead of devolving.

How to visualize the parasite's degradation

Let's say that 70-million Haremi are evolving upward each year. This is 1% of world's population. Here I imagine a 10x10 checkerboard topography. On this topography, 99 squares are flat and below X=1, and only 1 square in one corner pops up. This is because only 1% of the world is advancing genetically and the rest is degrading.

This is how I visualize the distribution of human genetic progress today. There is this tiny peak that is progressing—the Haremi. And the other 99% of mankind is actually going backwards genetically—actually degrading and growing stupider and more animal like in the Idiocracy film.

Now because the 1% relies on the other 99% for breeding stock, and Semitism is producing only a small number of the world's new people, the net result is our species is evolving backwards — growing dumber and dumber in every generation.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=sP2tUW0HDHA> The Idiocracy film trailer zebra

Here in this film is the future of mankind continued under Ishtar. And it is exactly what happened during the European Dark Ages. Just read any of the books from mankind's lost millennia, also the "great age of Islam". Read them and compare them with the pre-Christian and pre-Islam books. There is a giant dip in intelligence starting after Rome (~300 AD) and going until maybe the year 1300 AD. This is not counter-intuitive, and this clearly seems to have happened before. Let's not go down the tubes again.

Give up your library

You shall release the Alexandria library. Mankind is ready. You are commanded to make your great library public now that we are ending the bifurcation of mankind.

Alexander Solzhenitsyn, Gulag Archipelago

"If only it were all so simple! If only there were evil people somewhere, insidiously committing evil deeds, and it were necessary only to separate them from the rest of us and destroy them." [Now it is easy. Now you must fear the rage of the outies and their group spirit of Promentheus, un-shackled and fully awakened.]

Marco Polo, CH. 3

"He remembered the hated belief of the Saracens [the Sara•kins, the harem Arabs], by which every sin is regarded as a lawful act for men not of their religion, even killing a man."

Ammianus Marcellinus, 354-378AD, 16.3

"Great worry about food implies great indifference to virtue." [You must all cleave now if you want to use this as an excuse. This and many other excuses will slip away if you all fail to rapidly cleave.]

Ishtar petrifies like a gorgon

The secret and curse of the sphinx is no more. The hideous gorgon sees itself in the 7,000-page mirror of Perseus = Br•see•us. The entire hideous elephant = al•eff•n't now petrifies with fear.

From now on, Ishtar will no longer work, and the jihad = struggle is over. Cleave to the Mahdi who commands, 'Time of ignorance' and forgiveness for those who cleave fast. Cleave to the new prophet who ends Islam, frees all the slaves, and moves all the people.

Time of ignorance

It is easiest to plead time of ignorance early on. But after a few days it will become exponentially harder. It is time for all Ishtarrians follow their new universal prophet. It is time for everyone to cleave.

Good and evil

Soon all will now know good from evil. Soon there will be no excuse for the evil ex-pull of the parasitic land of no resources.

T.E. Lawrence, Seven Pillars of Wisdom, Ch. 3

[Of the Arabs] "Their largest manufacture was of creeds: almost they were monopolists of revealed religions. Three of these efforts had endured among them: [Christianity, Islam and Judaism] two of the three had also born export [carried in export] (in modified forms) to non-Semitic peoples."

What exactly are you loyal to?

Are you loyal to your clan and nation, or to the best future of all mankind, where most of mankind evolves upward, instead of 1-percent or less. I am loyal to the cause of all mankind and what is best for life on earth.

The devil lies about everything

Great good is the devil's best mask

Truth, goodness, justice and god's-will are some of the best covers and excuses for the evil or ex-pull activity of the parasite.

Ishtar is still struggling to enslave America's former slave population

What is the #1 day in Black history? It is 6/19 right? It is June 19, emancipation day. How can it be in the land of the free that its greatest act of freedom is not celebrated? And what is 1619, but an attempt to hide and cover up the most important day in black history?

It lies like the devil because it is the de-ex-pull, the parasitic de-ex-pull of the Mideast

Ishtar is a jet black spirit with no redeeming features except that it feeds the desperate Mideast and that it promises to produce the message you are now reading. Except for these things, it tells almost nothing but lies. If it didn't lie, nobody would follow it. If you think you found a redeeming feature, you have invariably found a lie. It lies to the outies, and it lies to the innies as well.

Hesiod, c.700BC, Theogony, 26-17

"We can say many false things as if they were true.
But how will we know what the truth really is."

[The harem-bred parasite people have lied so much, even they don't know what the truth is.]

To be a hero

If you want to be treated as a hero, you have to act like a hero and take on some risk. You must cleave fast. And nothing will help you like being an early spreader or shouter of this message. Write down the names and contact information of the people you spread this message to. This is so you will know how to reach your witnesses. Such innie heroes shall be treated as brave war heroes by the outies. These outies shall hide, defend and watch over you for going against Ishtar.

Time to cleave

You stand at a great crossroads. It is judgment day for Arabs Inc. How do you all cleave? Will you cleave with the hideous gorgon? Will you push the total war button in a futile effort to save awful Ishtar when a better way exists for everyone?

Ishtar dies now

Ishtar instantly paralyses and petrifies with fear on any talk of its true nature. This is because Ishtar is a gorgon that cannot withstand its own hideous image, once the truth be seen. In other myth it is like vampires that die in the daylight of the truth of what they are doing. So now is when you all destroy every aspect of Ishtar culture except the books and library.

Same direction please

Here is a total re-write of geo-political reality. No longer will humanity be bifurcated as parasite against host. No longer will there be the hugely wasteful parasite agenda struggling to reduce its host and waste its host's energies. Now all mankind is united under a single unified agenda of more and better for everyone.

Procopius, c.565 AD, Secret History, 10.3

"When a man cares nothing for the infamy of his actions [because he is leaving an escape-goat] and thus does not hesitate for fear of being known as a revolting character, no path of lawlessness is closed to him, but armed with the shamelessness visible at every moment in his face, he does the most despicable things and then proceeds cheerfully and without worry." [This is the way of Ishtar. Its followers attack in secrecy and blame others and are thus free to use the most reprehensible tactics. The sun has risen and no longer will this happen. The sun has risen and now your gazettes are laid open for all to see. Behold my great library of Arab literature fully explained. "The Devil's Confession" in its own words.]

Lucretius, c. 60 BC, Bk 2.1

"What joy to watch [two] opposing enemies assembled on the field of battle—when you yourself have no part in their danger.

This is the greatest joy of all: To stand aloof in a quiet citadel, stoutly fortified by the teachings of the wise. Gazing down from those heights on others wandering aimlessly in a vain search for a way of life, pitting... one against another, fighting for superiority... O joyless hearts of men! O minds without vision! How dark and dangerous is the life in which your tiny lifespan is frittered away in. Do you not see that your nature is barking [you human dogs] for only two things: A body free of pain and a mind free from worry and fear, released for the enjoyment of pleasurable sensations?"

[This was written by an Arab. Look at the words: citadel, barking dogs and a short lifespan. The Arabs are the only ones that call men dogs and talk of citadels. And the chosen harem bred ones see themselves as an immortal brotherhood. Apparently they also set-up their enemies to kill each other. It is largely forgotten today that Ancient Rome was at war with Persia for centuries until both collapsed around 600AD. Then in 636, began the Islamic conquest, and the Great Age of Islam, due to the vacuum created by the fall of their enemies.]

Iran and N.Korean wars can be stopped with only a thought

The thought is that someone else is using using North Korea and Iran as suicide puppet states.

Victoria's Secret or Victorious Secret

This is a blurd, or blurring word/term for a problematic secret meme that leaked out onto the lips of the outside world. The real term is Victorious Secret, the Arab secret, the lacey=al•A•see, matrix under the main cloth of the matrix.

Cicero, De Officiis, 2.21.75, as quoted by Petrarch

"What powers we may possess come from the weakness of others rather than any excellence in ourselves." [The Arabs come by most of their power by the weakness they create in our societies. They degrade our ability to understand, so they can get away with more. They also destroy our ability to provide for our own necessities so they can step in and sell us their necessities at shortage and famine pricing.]

William Bullein, 1573, A Dialogue against the Pestilence

"If a plague happens, it is no great loss. It delivers the poor from their pain and misery into a better world. ... In such plagues our poor people benefit greatly. Their loss is our good fortune. When they become naked, we then are clothed against their will. With their alms and doles we are relieved. Their sickness is our health, their death our life."

Hawthorne, House of the Seven Gables, Ch. 1

"Maule [mal] had addressed him... and uttered a prophecy... 'God.' said the dying man, pointing his finger, with a ghastly look, at the undismayed countenance [facial expression] of his enemy, 'God will give him blood to drink!'" [It never has to go this way for the Ishtarrians again.]

Thin Red Line film about the battle of Guadalcanal.

"This great evil, where's it come from? How'd it steel into the world? What seed, what root did it grow from? Who's doing this? Who's killing us, robbing us of life and light, mocking us with the sight of what we might have known. Does our room [our•oo'em=progeny] benefit the earth? Does it help the grass to grow, the sun to shine? Is this darkness in you too? Have you passed through this night? ... I'm going to sink my teeth into your liver. You're dying. See them birds up there, they gonna eat you raw."

Don't underestimate EI's fury

The group spirit of EI, is an aspect of Pro•men•theus = pro•man•spirit (Prometheus). It awakens when the will of Promentheus is extremely frustrated. And while the spirit of Promentheus is rational and will listen to reasoning, the spirit of EI is something totally different. It is not logical and it is also violent and war-like. And it doesn't go to sleep easily once it is awakened.

Don't risk waking EI. You must all cleave quickly, and confess and reverse everything. And you must now all struggle to help the world to work better instead of struggling to harm it and feed on it. And you must all make a public show of what you are doing.

Once this message goes global, it is my command that you all go to your nearest Mosque, and Synagogue and start destroying it. It should be just like what happened with the Berlin wall, with small hand tools mostly. The show with everyone participating is the important part, not the rapid demolition. Use hammers a bit too small so the demolition can progress over days and weeks and be more felt. But first take a wrecking ball to the Dome of the Rock, the Kabbah, Taj-ul in Bhopal, and the Soltani mosque in Tehran. This is to start out with a huge and impressive bang in addition to the complete demolition that will take many weeks to get the buildings to the ground and many months to completely pulverize the foundations.

Film and post everyone's demolition participation all over the world. And make sure you remove the foundations and symbolically eradicate all of the mosques of the world, but not the palaces. This includes the Dome of the Rock, the Kaaba, and the temple of Jerusalem. All shall be totally eradicated.

Upload videos of people stating their name and contact information and showing them bashing their Ishtarrian temple to the ground and ripping out its foundations. And do the same thing when they burn their slave's clothing.

Bible, Zechariah, 12:2

"Behold, I will make Judaea [Arabia] a pot of trembling fear, fearing those around it. When they shall lay siege against Judaea [Arabia]. On that day I shall make Judaea [Arabian affiliation] a burdensome weight, and all people that burden themselves with it shall be cut into pieces, when all the people of the earth will gather together against it. In that day, said the Lord, I will smite every horse [harem-bro] with astonishment [stun, stupefy, bewilder, dis•may them, leaving them unable to do anything, petrified like a gorgon], and its [frontman] riders with madness. And I [the great good spirit of mankind] will open my eyes upon the house of Judaea [Arabia], and will smite every horse of that people with blindness. [They will not know what to do.]

And the people and rulers of Judah [Arabia] shall say with their hearts that the lord of the host [as opposed to the parasite] is their god.

On that day, like a forest fire, or a torch upon a haystack, they shall devour the rulers of Judah [Arabia,] and all those around them. Eventually Jerusalem, even Jerusalem will grow a new population [after its slaughter]."

Don't resist

If any of you resist this message in even the slightest way, it may harm your people thousands of times over.

You are wrong and guilty

You are all criminals and everything you have is stolen. You have been worshipping the devil and its countless lies. How can you act as anything but humble sinner suppliant refugees begging to be helped out of the disaster that befell your people.

EVIL = ex•pull = what the parasite sucks out.

DEVIL = de•ex•pull = about the ex•pull

Genesis, 1:16

"And God made two great lights. The greater light to rule the day and the lesser light to rule the night." [Most people in the host part of the world have underestimated the power of Mideast darkness/ evil in this world.]

You have one chance

You have one chance to join with the host, and it is now. Don't delay or you may blow your golden opportunity.

The first mover advantage

The first Ishtarian nation to cleave gets first priority in Exhodos. Then comes the next nation. A similar sort of thing happens in the outside world on an individual basis with recent Mideast immigrants. The most eager anti-Ishtarrians will obviously be the most sought after. There is safety in numbers when you rebel against Ishtar. The first and most courageous individuals must thus be rewarded greatly. All first cleaver nations jump ahead of all later cleavers regardless of the Arab queue. Only among people who cleaved at the same time does the Arab queue come into play as a tie breaker.

Fear the Outies more than the Innies

If there ever was a time when you had to fear the outies more than the innies, it is now. Cleave fast for cleaving will protect you from the Outies.

Time to cleave

There is no halfway in the shadows of mankind's ignorance any more. The sun has risen and everything's true color is plain to see.

"We all hated Islam, but everyone was afraid to go against it."

First-hand and relevant

Mine is the only first-hand pro•eff•it's message you have. All the others are all at least 3rd hand. Only now do you hear the real voice of a true prophet.

Tom Bro•caw, NBC News, 1989.11.11

"The cold stone barrier is alive with excitement as the West greets the East. It's like new year's eve, only better here because it's not been celebrated in so many years. It's as if all the energy towards isolation is now being spent on joy and a new beginning."

Celebrate like its 1989

Watch the clips of when the Berlin wall came down. You should try to emulate and amplify the sentiment here. You should all be dancing in the streets for the liberation of your people and the unification of mankind.

Celebrate your prophet's arrival. Soon everyone will be free. Look at the videos of Berlin in 1989. Look at the joy of being free and smashing the much hated structure that enslaved their community. You are all now free from horrible Ishtar. You must all celebrate and destroy the edifices that enslaved you.

Dancing in the streets and celebrating the collapse of Islam will send a very important message to the outies. You must all celebrate your liberation from Islam, or they may think you in some way regret it.

You can also dance naked in the streets. If you do this, you will send an even stronger message, that Islam is dead and no longer to be feared. And dancing naked in the streets will also say visually that you will do whatever crazy thing your Mahdi even suggests might help you – and at the same time show that you are all no longer slaves of horrible Ishtar. But hold back on dancing naked in the streets unless you really need it, unless things start spiraling out of control due to the violence of the learn-it-once-and-never-forget-it dog-men among you.

Don't forget to celebrate

There should be a spirit of celebration in all you do now, except the videos where you curse your former religion.

My answer to the Arab question

It is that automation and artificial reality have altered the ancient human reality of scarcity. Thanks to robots on the supply side and artificial reality on the demand side, we are about to conquer scarcity worldwide. There is simply no longer any need to fight over (or hide) scarce resources. Now we will have a world of automation and abundance. After thousands of years, we will now move all the people and all live in peace.

A happy ending for the world's oldest tragedy

Let's not have a repeat of 480BC, 146BC, 69AD, 525AD, 1258AD, and 1491AD when much of the Mideast died.

Let's not screw it up again

This time the 5,800-year division among men will end forever, and we will again start progressing upward as a species – no longer will be go sideways, or in reverse.

Are you Ishtarrians ready to fight WW3?

You have:

- 1) no money.
- 2) no debts owed to you.
- 3) no valuable resources to sell.
- 2) no invisibility.
- 3) no secret code.
- 4) no secret tactics.
- 5) no threat of torture advantage.
- 6) no ability to sell exit promises
- 7) no ability to command loyalty from past ex•hods
- 8) now many will think that Ishtar is the root of all evil.

The real analogy of the cave

Now the sun shines into every part of your 5,800-year old cave. Behold the accumulated filth. Behold how your struggle has been the #1 thing wrong with mankind.

I am the savior and new prophet of the Mideast

Say this to everyone among you. Say this over and over so I may sweep away Ishtar like flipping a light-switch. Tell them that that I am obviously the Mahdi and the savior of the Arabs. Call me Salvador Mundi, like the Da Vinci painting, with its crystal clear representation of the world.

EI, Pro•men•theus, the all-powerful group spirit

The shared group spirit of Pro•men•theus has always been hundreds of times more powerful than Ishtar, the group spirit of the parasitic land of no resources. You don't stand a chance now that everyone can hear the high one's voice. You also don't stand a chance now that everyone can see you.

Ishtar will now be seen as the root of all evil

Ishtar will now be understood by all as the root cause of just about everything wrong with humanity. It is folly to stay cleaved to Ishtar.

The Ishtar spirit cannot exist any longer

You are all mostly by definition living in places that should not be populated. You have been living as thieves. You can no longer continue on along that path thanks to my message.

The sooner the better

If Ishtar and Islam died over the course of say 6 hours, it would be much more convincing that if this took 2-days or 2-weeks. Not only will a delay be a mere delay, but it will also make the outies doubt the unity of your people, and this will have a multiplicative effect on their resistance to accepting your exodos. So it is best to kill Ishtar/Islam fast.

Present a totally united front

Nothing will help improve the future for the Ishtarians like unity. And nothing will speak of unity like the speed at which you one-and-all cleave to my new message.

Your best and final offer

I hereby instruct the outies to make mine their best offer to the innies. Then they shall rapidly take benefits away, and increase punishments, as time goes on. In fact, there should be an exponential reduction in benefits for early cleaving and an exponential increase in punishments for late cleaving.

You innies must realize that you will never get an offer as good as my first offer. So you all might as well just cleave immediately and unconditionally. You will lose all your stolen wealth, but you will not be totally bankrupted unless you are interred for violations. Life will go on for you if you cleave fast.

The golden day

Maybe it will be a few days. Maybe it will not. The sooner you post your videos, the sooner you will have been deemed to have cleaved away from Islam/Ishtar. The first ones to cleave will get great rewards and honors, the last will suffer the focused rage. Except for the most heinous crimes, all who confess all, explain all, and renounce all on the first day will get amnesty. These will all be as considered as acts of war that happened in a time of ignorance, before anyone really understood what was really going on.

Spread this message and be a hero. 'Struggle' against it and you will be seen as the devil itself. In fact, we shall preserve the first to cleave, by redirecting all EI's fury against the last to cleave. The outies are commanded to protect and preserve the first cleavers as heroes — for taking the greatest risk, going against Ishtar. And 10 steps later, the outies are also commanded to treat the last cleavers as the devil itself, focusing all their rage on these people.

A world without Ishtar

What if we could make that happen without anyone dying? Oh what a joy that would be.

Give them no excuses

You of Ishtar, the outside world will be looking for every excuse to hate you and to destroy your people. Don't give the world any excuses now that they all suddenly know the truth about Ishtar.

All Innies must post a shit in their holy book video

You must all post your own shit in your holy book video online under your name. This video must clearly show you putting fresh shit in your most holy book by whatever means. Then you must close the book on the shit and mash the shit into the book's pages. Then you must curse your holy book. Then you must burn the holy book and dance around the fire three times shouting curses against your previous religion. All of this must be clearly depicted on posted video. You Ishtarians must all realize that few things will make your life better going forward than rapidly posting a shit in your holy book video.

You must say it like you mean it

1/ If your cleaving videos are not sufficiently filled with the correct sort of emotion, your clip may be ignored by the authorities judging your video after the fact.

2/ Clips should not exceed 2 minutes.

3/ You must include your full name, email, ID number and phone number.

4/ You must post all three cleaving videos:

a/ You must put shit in the holiest book of your former religion. Then you must curse that book and burn that book. You must also dance three times around the flames burning the book while you cheer the book's destruction.

b/ You must take part in the destruction of a temple of your former religion.

c/ You must burn your slave's clothing.

d/ You must post a video where you confess all Ishtarian tactics and all destructive activities you know about or have ever participated in.

Other Mideast religions

I ask people to post videos where they shit-in and curse all of the world's ancient holy books that have tax-paying false religions built on top of them. This includes all religions that burn or once burnt super-expensive Arabian incense.

Be my greatest proponents

You Arabs must become the greatest proponents of my message. You must make me your new universal prophet, replacing all the other former Mideast prophets, be they Mohammed, Jesus, Abraham, Zeus, Zarathustra, Zoroaster, or whoever.

Show the cleaving on Mideast media

All broadcasts in all Muslim nations shall say something like: "Here we are in <insert city>, where everyone has unanimously decided that Andrew is the new prophet of the entire Mideast. One and all they are cleaving to Andrew as the Mahdi, the new prophet. Here we see them defiling and cursing the old false Koran."

No middle ground

There can be no in-between, or indifference because the parasites agenda is diametrically opposed to everything that over 99% of the world wants. Either your people unequivocally and completely give up Islam, Ishtar, and the parasite's agenda, or you do not.

HOW TO ACT

Be full of regret and guilt

You Ishtarrians were all wrong. You are all sorry for what has happened. You were all acting out of ignorance, and fear of going against Ishtar. You are now all as beggars grateful for the charity of your generous benefactors. You must all have this mindset, or the cleaving may not really work.

No hatred

Be as apologetic and humble as you can. Your people were wrong. You will not be allowed even a drop of hatred or even dislike to taint all of your people. The anger must cease entirely, or it will be as one rotten tomato contaminating a huge barrel of sauce. Remember, any hatred, aggression, arguing or Islamic clothing will be as a rotten tomato in the mix of your people. No provocations at all — nothing even close.

You innies will get what you give

If you want a little war, the outies will give you a little war. If you want a big war like with Xerxes and Mongke Kahn, the outies will give you a big war, for I command them to fight back in an escalative manner, like a poker player that knows he has a better hand. Remember, that no matter how much your side fights now, you will suffer much more in return until you are all wiped out. And this will be focused on the west coast of Arabia and all the Harem-bros around the world.

No violence against outies

I instruct the outies to give your people at least 20-fold collective retribution for any violence against them. You Arabs are however free to arrest or otherwise purge yourselves of all your own people who might create trouble for your nations.

You of Arabia's empire

The world will now be looking for an excuse to wipe you out. Will you give it one? If you fight, it will quickly become you and everyone who looks like they might be one of you — as thousands of years of evil ex-pull comes back to haunt you.

All violence will backfire

Make no mistake about it, if you become violent, your option will rapidly narrow.

If you go Fire-of-Rome again

You will be wiped out again, but worldwide, and with information age and gene testing thoroughness. You might also want to consider looking at the (Roman-massacre-of-Judaeen-Arabia) file. There is much for you learn there.

Behold the devil/ de-ex-pull

Ishtar was responsible for both WW2 and the holocaust. It was responsible for WWI. It has been lying about the scarcity of oil. It has been lying about tsunami risks and helping to put the biggest cities of every nation in the jaws of death. It has been lying about the ice age. It was responsible for the Black Death, It has been angling for WW3. It was responsible for countless plagues as listed herein (plague-and-poisoning). It is a thing that is wholly without any virtue at all. Do you really want to remain cleaved to Ishtar and Islam? Let's just all kill Ishtar and start the world over again.

Don't fight

Your only chance of survival is to confess, repent and come over to the side of more and better for everyone. You must all confess all you have done, and all you know about, on public video. It is time to end Ishtar, Ishlam and G•oo•dei•ism forever.

Collective punishment

I say that Ishtar is one-for-all-and-all-for-one. I also say that most Ishtarian terrorism is centrally planned. For these reasons, I not only put collective retribution back on the menu, but I recommend it for Ishtarian terrorism. In fact, I recommend escalative 20 to 100-fold retribution for Ishtarian terrorism. And I recommend that the retribution start with the chosen and leading harem-bros of the world, especially those living on high ground around tsunami funnels, and those living on the western half of the Arabian subcontinent.

Walk into holding patterns

To all Arabs, Muslims, Ishtarrians, Harem-Bros and everyone being held under their thumb. Go to the town squares and walk into a holding pattern with the others. Walk in 200-600m loops of irregular shapes. Do this every day from 12:00 to 12:20. Show the world that the machines are ready for a new matrix. Post Videos of your participation in the holding pattern.

TO THE OUTIES

Time of ignorance.

Nobody is at fault

Ishtar is just something incredibly stupid that evolved in mankind. And if you want to kill Islam and Ishtar worldwide, you must give total forgiveness to those who cleave immediately.

All Ishtarrians shall disarm

All Ishtarrians found in public with firearms, blades, clubs, bullets, explosives, sticks, or weapons of any kind should spend at least years under lockup.

Protect the cleavers

The citizen militia is hereby mobilized to protect the people demonstrating how they have cleaved from Islam. Ishtarrians recorded harassing or making threats against cleavers shall spend the rest of their days in a work camp.

We must give the Arabs a way to survive

We can't leave them with no way out. If we do this, we may face small pox and nuclear attacks. However, short of killing or harming them, we can and should demand a great deal.

The Outies must foster a sellout situation

The first innies who go against Ishtar and Islam risk much. We outies must help them to come over to our side, and for helping to prevent WW3. So we shall treat the first ones as heroes. We shall give great incentives to the Ishtarrians that first go against Ishtar. And we must punish the hold-outs severely. This is vitally important. Focus your rage where it will kill Ishtar. This is because killing Ishtar is our first priority, a priority higher even than justice right now.

Killing Ishtar is more important than justice

This had to be said.

To avert a great war,

The Innies must have hope

Make sure you give the innies some hope that you are not just going to wipe them all out. Let them start confessing. Let them turn against their old agenda, so that Ishtar may be totally ended. You can always change your mind later. There is no point in driving them into martyr mode where they will try to take billions of you along with them.

Nobody really knew

Nobody talks about Ishtar very long without disappearing. And there are no previous guidebooks, except that message from 2,000 years ago, the one that was adulterated into the Bible. Except for that, and my message there are no guidebooks explaining the secret of Ishtar = shh•te•our.

It is quite hard to explain

It is, of course, even harder to get people to see and believe your explanations. Believe me, I have worked for over a decade on this objective.

Nobody talks about it directly

Everyone who knows about it is afraid of it

Nobody wants to become the curare-immobilized br•unch meal once a week for the rest of their life, being slowly nibbled down.

They are going to eat you alive

Theirs is an ancient culture that literally eats people alive, and does it slowly, for its enemies.

Flagellate from Latin Flagellare = to whip

Eff•alli•G•al•A•te = shout•about•the•G•men•eh•you? The word for whipping people to death is the same word as to shout about the secrets of Ishtar and the G-men of the harems.

The hell the Brothers face

Those images of Christian hell, where you are slowly devoured. That is the reality that Mideast people face for some crimes against Ishtar. They face a slow all day br•unching, where they are slowly nibbled to death once a week for the rest of their lives. They are allowed to heal a bit, then nibbled some more. And sometimes this happens over years. So you on the outside, you must realize the coercion these people have been living under.

Understand the fear they live under

Most of you on the outside you don't grasp the fear of Ishtar. Everyone who sees it is petrified by it, like they were petrified by the gorgon. They are all afraid of going against it, even to the point of not wanting to say anything that it might not like.

Trapped in a machine

Many Arabs consider themselves trapped in a giant machine.

Forgive

If you believe anything I say, believe this: That we all must forget and forgive all our hatreds from before this day as happening during a time of ignorance. If we cannot do that, then we may face a horrible war that will result in the total annihilation of the Arabian harem race and nearly all Muslims alive today — along with perhaps 85% of the outside world. Please, allow them to repent. Please help the world to stop this stupid bifurcation and struggle once and for all. Our species has bigger and better things to do than to continue wasting time contending as parasite and host races.

They all want it to stop more than you do

They have to contribute to evil — both in money and in services rendered. All are slaves, and all must do their part to earn their freedom. Who wants to be a slave? And who wants to be evil? And who wants to draw straws to be the next fall guy, or the next suicide bomber? But if nobody does the hard stuff, Mideast Inc. will stop working, and the desperation will build until it Ishtar starts working again. Here is another path.

5,800-years of evolution

You can bet that it evolved some highly effective Meccan•ism to assure loyalty as well as secrecy. Chief among these is that it tries to entrap people to test their loyalty. Everyone in it is terrified by it.

Even I didn't understand it

Around 2007, I first saw through it here and there. Then, after maybe 7-years constant 12-hour a day of reading, writing and pondering, I got about 2/3 into my understanding of it. I am certain that most people working for it don't really understand it — or they thought something else was going on. We have to let people confess, repent and explain. Except at the very center of this thing, most people really do not fully understand what is going on. So you can't blame most people for participating in Ishtar prior to today.

Let's just stop the war before it starts

We have better things to do than to start a war of vengeance for something so poorly understood as the mysterious and hidden ways of Ishtar.

"Allah the merciful" is doublespeak

The devil lies about everything — or just about everything. The saying Allah the merciful is actually doublespeak and it actually means the exact diametric 180° opposite. It means death by hell for the people who really do something bad against Ishtar. When I hear the phrase Allah the merciful, I visualize the people being nibbled to death by s•add•istic canaan•nibbles.

It lies like the devil because it is the devil

It is a jet black spirit with no redeeming features whatsoever. If it didn't lie, nobody would follow it. If you think you found a redeeming feature, more than 9 times out of 10 you found a lie. It lies to the outies, and it lies to the innies as well.

Just a piece

I once worked around some Iraqi refugees. I asked a couple different people what they thought of Saddam Hussein, who was still in power at the time. At least three commented that they just wanted a little piece of him making a thumbnail gesture, as if thousands of them would each take a pinch from of him under their thumbnail.

You must match punishments

If Ishtar threatens hell and you threaten only painless lethal injection, Ishtar may live on. If the Innies are torturing traitors to death over months and years, and are you are only locking them up and boring them to death, you are at a tremendous disadvantage in ending Ishtar and Islam. For this reason, you must torture the worst of them to death in an equally awful manner. The Innies must fear the outies as much as they fear their own, or we may not be able to kill Ishtar completely.

Our notions of Christian mercy are not real

These were given to us by the parasite's evil ex•pull, so its infiltrators would not need to fear us as much as they fear the Arab cause. This has just changed. Job #1 for the Eu•mans is to kill Ishtar. And to this end, I fully explain the logic of why the outies must match punishments. The unrepentant innies must now equally fear El's fury.

A prime injunction

Do not harm those who immediately surrender, confess and explain. Focus your rage on the others without limit.

Imagine the fear

Recall the film "The Cleaner". Imagine that, but with the people abducted and tortured to deaths. Everyone who knows about Ishtar is terrified to talk about it with outies, let alone go against it. It is like standing up and talking about the mafia. All the parasite's people are all enslaved by the gorgon, a monster that petrifies with fear all who behold it in their vision or imagination. Give them a way out, so that we may kill Ishtar root and branch.

Aeschylus, The Eumenides, c. 458C, 162-170

["Such is your triumph, you young gods
World domination beyond all rights
And world domination held by unrestrained force.
Your throne reeks of death and streams blood,
Blood at its base, and blood at its crown.
The horrible navel-stone at the center of the earth
Its bleeding, covered in corruption, its guilt plain to see.
The prophet has stained/spoiled the hearth of his secret shrine, having himself driven and urged-on its crimes."](#)

Give them an out

You outies: Give the innies a little time to understand. Imagine it is WW2 and we have started dropping leaflets showing the German people that their Nazi government was responsible for Auschwitz. It takes a little time for a society to change its mind. Give the Arabs a little time. If you don't give them a little time — if you simply wage a war of annihilation on the Mideast, or worse, if you leave them to a grinding famine, it will be WW3. Before you do this read my Plague and Poisoning section. And read the parts about what happened after the Romans secured the Red Sea after Actium in 31BC. If we don't give the desperate land of no resources an out, the world may see the use of every weapon and disease known to man. You must give them a brief time to repent. And you must feed and provision them until all the new conversos can be moved.

If they all come over immediately

If mankind is able to put this phase of its existence behind it with the speed of an idea whose time has come, then you shall forgive them all. It is simply not worth seeking revenge once the war has ended. And this certainly is/was a war — the war/ struggle/ jihad behind nearly all other wars.

I own it / them

As their new prophet, they are all my slaves and they all belong to me as my property. All Mideast lands, and all Mideast people are mine. They are my slaves and must do as I order. Here are my orders in writing. All Arabs and Muslims must obey. You in the host or Roman part of the world must help me enforce my will over my slaves so we can end Ishtar and its slavery.

You must move all the people

Moving all the Mideast people to the world of more and better is a prime directive of my message — just like isolating all those who stay behind physically or metaphorically to give rebirth to Ishtar and Islam.

Remember, Remember, Remember

North Korea and Iran are suicide puppet states. If they start a great nuclear or germ war now, it was the chosen harem Arabs behind it. If this happens, don't be distracted by the escape goats. Go after the people holding the puppet strings.

What if it drops dead?

What a stroke of luck it would be if Ishtar just drops dead like communism did. If that happens, give universal amnesty. Let's just all put Ishtar behind us and consider ourselves fortunate that there will be no WW3. If they all repent rapidly, let it end and count your blessings. Take away their excess wealth, all of which is stolen, but do not bankrupt them completely. Remember that Ishtar feeds on desperation and if you make them desperate, or fear desperation, then you will be helping Ishtar to live. We did not go after the communists for the crimes of their parents, and we should not go after the Arabs for the crimes of their parents. We should just let Ishtar, Islam, Judaism, and Catholicism die.

You know its gotta end

When is the right time to end it?

You Brothers all must know that your agenda is futile in the long run. Your own grandchildren will become the worst enemies of each other. Why don't you end it now? No matter how far you have gone down the wrong road, turn back.

Mine is a long message

In total, the work was about 7,000 pages long, or about 2.8- million words. At 29 pages/day it will take about 8-months to read.

All translations of these documents must be available in Parallel translation, line by line format

Take the red pill

In the Matrix film, the new guy Neo took a red pill to make the matrix stop. This message is the same sort of thing. If you keep reading you will awaken from the matrix. After that you will awaken from a parallel reality of interpretation, a reality mostly of disinformation and untrue explanations and reasons for things.

Wake up

You must all wake up or Ishtar will take over and ruin the world again as it has done repeatedly for thousands of years.

Don't let the green Arabs blame the yellow Jews again

This is a chosen harem green Arab thing. It has always been about the land of no resources, Arabia, not the children and grandchildren of the people who earned a ticket out by being of service to Ishtar. Make sure you hate the right group of people or you will double the injustice. Make sure you understand your enemy, the enemy of all humanity = eu•man•idi. good•man•ideas. It is mostly the desperate race from the land of no resources. It is mostly not the people born among you.

Aeschylus, The Eumenides, 179-197

"Apollo: [Get out of the prophet's chamber now... \[or I will\] make you vomit up the black blood clots you have sucked from all the people you have murdered.](#) This is no place for such as you: Where by your judgement, heads were cut off, eyes gouged out, boys castrated, huge stones placed upon people's chests, people impaled on spikes, and others had their extremities maimed [fingers and toes gnawed off] — the victims wailing for pity. You revolt the gods. Your look, your whole regalia gives you away. Your physical shape is guide to what you are, the like of whom should hole-up in the death-reeking cave of a lion, not in oracular interiors, like mine. Never rub your filth on the Prophet's shrine. Out then, you flock of goats without a herdsman. Out! No god will ever shepherd your brood with love."

Haruki Murakami, After Dark, Ch.9

"Like say an octopus, a giant octopus living way down deep at the bottom of the sea. It has this tremendously powerful life force, and a bunch of long undulating tentacles, and its heading somewhere, moving through the darkness of the ocean. I'm sitting there, listening to these court trials, and all I can see in my head is this creature. It takes on all kinds of different shapes. Sometimes it's the nation, and sometimes its the law, and sometimes it takes on shapes that are more difficult and dangerous than that. You can try cutting off its legs, but they just keep growing back. Nobody can kill it. It is too strong, and it lives so far down in the ocean. Nobody knows where its heart is. What I felt then was a deep terror, and a kind of hopelessness, a feeling that I could never run away from this thing, no matter how far I ran. And this thing, this creature, this thing doesn't give a damn that I'm me or you are you. In its presence, all human beings lose their names and faces. We all turn into signs, into numbers."

This work is not quite finished

I was in a bit of a hurry to save the world. The message but the message is good enough.

The prophet's new world

- 1) Nobody will bother to import Ishtar's oil... and everybody will assume all commodity shortages to be one of your hoaxes.
- 2) Everybody now sees Ishtar in broad daylight, and nearly everyone will hate it. And the ones that don't hate it will all be afraid to work for it.
- 3) Thanks to the new democratic design, our democracies now become impervious to Ishtar's corruption.
- 4) Thanks to the capital reapportionment, Ishtar own no property and it will be owed no debt.
- 5) When the Ishtarians cleave to me, all internal Ishtarian debts are transferred to me and my agenda. So Ishtar will have no more slaves. All of Ishtar's slaves are now my slaves to do with as I see fit. And I command them to struggle against Ishtar in every way they can even after they are freed.
- 6) Ishtar will no longer be able to sell exit visas for exit promises because the people of the outside world will move all your people.
- 7) I command many overlapping measures to undermine the long term value of Gold, diamonds, crypto currencies, and similar stores of value. All will plummet in value now.
- 8) I command a new world government replacing the UN. This new form of world government is specifically designed to minimize the power of Ishtar's inverted agenda in global decision making.

Our 5 options in dealing with Ishtar

- Option-1 — Status quo. They waste 10x more stealing from us: This is the way things have been done. This path is stupid because the Arab stealing wastes at least 10-times more resources than they pull down. This path also leads to a dys-trope-pian future with an invisible over-class of harem brothers killing all the smart people who get in their way, thus mankind degrades genetically.
- Option-2 — Feed them and let them grow: This path will be much less costly than option 1, But Arab populations will explode.
- Option-3 — Leave them to starve: This path will result in Millions of Arabs hating the outside world, and a repeat of the great arson fire of Rome, and the subsequent massacre of Judaeen Arabia.

Option-4 — Try to kill them all: This path will result in fewer Arab survivors hating the outside world. This is a much better approach than option 3.

Option-5 — Move them all: This path seems to be the only practical solution. We will feed and educate them, and they will all cleave against Ishtar and Islam.
