

A win-win end to Ishtar's struggle

This document is for those involved with the Mideast struggle. If this message is out in public, then it worked. Then the Mideast has accepted it. Then the religion of Islam is on the path to achieving its prime objective of moving all the people from the wastelands, and ending the struggle once and for all.

Here is a design for a new world that is unified in all the ways that truly matter to the Ishtarian/Islamic world. Namely, it moves (or provides for) all the people of the wastelands. But this design also establishes a new world unified in all the ways that truly matter to the outside world. In short, it is a much better world for both sides, a two-tickets-to-paradise-world that nearly everyone will welcome and quickly accept.

The Mideast has been prosperous for 50-years now, since the oil embargo of 1973. Look at the harm Ishtar has done to mankind. And what progress has the Islamic world made solving its eternal problems during this time? Has desperation declined or increased? Has war and violence decreased or increased for Ishtar's people? Has Ishtar with all those oil billions done anything to solve the problems of its people? Ishtar has actually grown in population and the problems are worse now. Right?

This is because the ancient ways of Ishtar are only a means to an end, and not an end in themselves. Here is an end, a peaceful end for the Arab struggle, and a better world for all.

Here is the very message the Mideast struggle revolves around producing. All Muslims, all Ishtarians, all "Our-abs" will stop following the old opposed and dark ways and start following some new cooperative and light ways. And everything will be according to a detailed plan that is over 7,000-pages long.

Gamal Nasser, Egyptian president 1956-1970

"The leadership of the 100 million Arabs is a role wandering aimlessly about in search of an actor to play it."

According to your traditions, I am now your ruler/ your new prophet. To the extent you are all obligated to the ancient Mideast struggle, you are now obligated to my new struggle and my new commands as your new ruler. All Ishtarian and Semitic people are commanded to spread, tout, and follow my message and my plan for the new world as stated herein. The first wasteland nations to cleave to me as your new prophet will get first priority in exodus. Also, if the entire Islamic empire immediately cleaves, it will get exhoded years faster.

The old ways are about to stop working. Soon, nobody will dare use them any longer. Now you must all flip the struggle around by 180°. No more harm or hate for the outside world. Instead you will all join with the outside world and cooperate, and struggle to help it.

You are all commanded to stop the hatred, struggle, and waring now. Stop, all of you. From now on, you shall all give an equal amount of energy (and alacrity) to being full of help, love, peace, generosity, and diligent cooperation with the outside world. That is the new purpose for all of you. Any violence or even bickering will greatly delay the ending of Ishtar and movement of the people.

Assuming the Mideast violence stops entirely, in every part of the world, those living in badlands will either be moved in 12-years, or some will be provided with the water they need to make their desert bloom.

All the people living in the near total deserts of the greater Arabian peninsula and other near total Ishtarian wastelands will be moved and must stay out. This area will be totally depopulated. Those living in lands that can be made to sustain people thorough irrigation may remain where they are. There are extensive irrigation projects called for herein: See the section titled "Watertech and new immigrant nations" for a list.

However, each Ishtarian nation must completely forsake Ishtar and Islam and agree to accept a one child policy as stated herein. They must also self-assemble into a conforming broad democracy in order to qualify. (See democracy section for details.)

All of you obligated or enslaved to the futile cause of Ishtar and its darkness shall now cleave against the darkness, secrets, lies and futility of the demon Ishtar. You all know you will never satisfy the appetite of the metaphorical carnivorous plant. Here is a better way. It is time to end the awful parasitic struggle once and for all.

Your ancient ways are only a means to an end, and not an end in themselves. In fact, your ancient ways are actually a futile dead end. They are only a way to temporarily feed the desperate Mideast, not a solution to its problems. No matter what we feed Ishtar's insatiable appetite, we will never escape the reality of the ever-increasing hunger and desperation Ishtar breeds.

The Ishtarian struggle was never a cure, but only a temporary treatment. Here is a painless and easy cure, and a total end to the Ishtar disease in one easy step. Here is a way to unify mankind in all the ways that really matter for the desperate people of the wastelands. And here is also a unified world that the rest of the world will eagerly adopt without any need for trickery, threat or violence.

Let me suggest a bar for the true prophet of the Mideast. The true prophet is the one that moves all the people and ends the Mideast struggle without physically harming the Mideast's people. And there simply is no other consideration. Right?

You of Ishtar shall all be grateful and maximally cooperative now. You shall all be full of gratitude, goodwill and kindness to your new host societies for the help and relocations your people get. Your eternal gratitude is one of the most important things you can do to make the outside world help your people to end the curse of Ishtar forever. You must also fully adopt the ways of the land taking you in.

The outside world does not hate your people, it hates the inverted parasitic customs and religions of Ishtar. If you all cleave away from your old ways and towards my new ways, we can entirely end the desperation and poverty of your people once and for all.

Your trail of destruction is vast and quite well explained herein. You are not going to be able to plead time-of-ignorance for long. So the faster and more totally you all cleave to the new ways, the better it will be for you. Here it would be quite helpful if all my new Mideast servants took to the streets, hailing, chanting "Mahdi" and celebrating the arrival of the new prophet. Have big all-night parties throughout your lands with Western music, dancing in the streets, marijuana (and alcohol if you have a good liver). This will send a powerful message of relief and joy to both the outside world as well as the doubters among you.

Use drones to show the giant city parties in the streets of the formerly Muslim cities of the world. This will be like a good housewarming party. It will set the tone. One night a week, different nights in each country of the former Islamic world will have giant street parties, but to those watching it will be every night.

Its perfect because it will end Ishtar

Talk about the immediately obvious perfection of my message. Insist that my work is in fact obviously from the Mahdi, so we can sweep away all the learn-it-once-and-never-forget dogmatic people among you. Be insistent, emphatic, repetitive, and keep shaking your heads up and down when you say: "Andrew is unquestionably the Mahdi."

To the world outside of the Mideast

Here is a way to:

- a/ End the population explosion worldwide.
- b/ Live in harmony with the capacity of the planet, through new rail-based townships.
- c/ End poverty and hunger on earth.
- d/ End nearly all war.
- d/ Permanently end everything you hate about the Mideast and the tyrannical nations of the world.
- e/ Make your government much more honest.

Here is a way to obtain a paradise world. But you must help all those who rapidly cleave as called for herein. Please believe me when I say that stopping the Mideast struggle is more important than exacting revenge. You must give its people a way out. Also you must give them some time to digest my message. If you don't do this, you may have a nuclear and pan-epidemic WW3 on your hands when the Mideast siege mentality kicks in.

Here is the trade-off: You in the outside world will give the people of the Arab badlands the one thing they all truly and desperately need, to get out of their wasteland and start over somewhere else where they don't have the constant economic drain of having to always bring food in. And in exchange for this, you will get every reasonable benefit, guarantee possible, and complete pay-back with interest.

If they settle among you: All exhods must pass language, culture and skills tests where they re-settle. All must follow the rules, mores, and manners of their adoptive nation, as well as lengthy rules of conduct. All must remain employed full-time or remain in their island immigration camp. All exhods of working age must work 10-hours a week until 2035.01.01 to repay their host nation for the cost of their ex•hodos = out•way. All exhods must become the loyal servants of their adoptive nation, as they were previously Ishtar's loyal servants. The more desirable nations may charge immigrants more hours per week of public service work. The less desirable nations may charge less. For those Exhods who do not want to pay the discharging taxes, or can't get adopted (as adults by a host community), they may settle in one of the world government's many new settlement nations listed elsewhere. These areas are all underpopulated and underused areas today. For example:

1/ New Egypt. Old Egypt averages 3cm of rain annually. However there is a great band of land in Sudan that get ~20cm/year in rainfall, about half of what is needed to grow crops. So we will use the Niles water here and get around twice the crop yield. We will also have more water because there will not be 2,300km of seepage and evaporation. We will also lower the waters of Lake Albert and Lake Edward (sources of the Nile), so these lakes don't leak as much into the too wet Congo basin. We will also use the Nile's water to farm the immense lake basin that covers about 75% of South Sudan.

2/ Divert the Ubangi River into Chad. We will divert the Ubangi river into the vast desert of the Chad valley. The Ubangi has around twice the water flow of the Nile.

3/ Divert the Upper Brahmaputra River into the Indus River that gives Pakistan life.

4/ Put the Amu Darya and Syr Darya in pipes high up, and use the energy generated by the fall to drive the water out into the Central Asian desert.

5/ There are literally dozens of other rivers that will be redirected in my plan. There are also dozens of new nations (in greatly underpopulated areas) that will soon be open for settlement.

Some of the new nations:

1/ Amazon and Orinoco basin. This is the biggest and richest area, a new second America will be established here for immigrants from all over the world.

2/ North Canada. (Vetting + discharge tax)

3/ East Russia. (Vetting + discharge tax)

4/ The Congo.

5/ Central African Republic.

6/ Chad and the North African belt. (Irrigated)

7/ Newly irrigated parts of India.

8/ Botswana. (partly irrigated)

9/ Volga area. (Irrigated)

11/ The Burmas. (Vetting + discharge tax)

13/ Borneo.

10/ The Sudans. (Irrigated)

12/ Laos.

14/ East Kenya.

16/ New Guinea and neighboring islands

In all settlement nations, the Exhods will be settled as a mix of people from many different exhodos areas. They will also be heavily buffered with other poor settlers from non-muslim parts of the world. This is necessary so that locals will permit settlement. This is especially necessary in places like Burma, the Sudan's and East Kenya.

Where exhods settle among an existing population they shall be chosen and adopted by a neighborhood group (a "Nome") of 250 voters. This neighborhood group will supervise and help resettle their new Exhod neighbors. A larger group of 50,000 voters (a "Centi-Nome") will judge on each Exhod's behavior and rule breaking. Exhods may be deported for small infractions, or for being aggressive, rude, or angry. However, for every 2 Exhods deported, they shall be replaced with 3 new Exhods from among those remaining and unchosen, so that only genuine troublemakers are sent back.

Everyone obligated to the Mideast shall now be obligated to my new way of running the Mideast struggle

All exhods, no matter when they came, age 15 to 60 will all have to give their adoptive nation at least 43-hours of their wages, or eager service, per month until 2035. This is as payback and incentive for rapidly moving all the people. Then, after this, they will all be free, free of Ishtar, and free of their obligations to me, and then they will all be living as free men in paradise. However, they will still have to obey the laws and rule where they were resettled, or they may be sent to an island for lifelong exile. And this may happen no matter how long they lived in their adoptive nation.

In order to get the outside world to move all the exhodos. There will be no second chances for Exhods. Law breakers and rule breakers will not be allowed to foul exhodos for the rest. Those who fail to find employment, or fail to pay their taxes, or fail to remain cleaved, or are elected as vexing, or s-giving or trouble making by their local government may be deported. Trouble makers will not be allowed to foul up exhodos for the rest.

The wealth of Khadijah is mine to use as I decide

I choose to give it all back to the people it was stolen from. Everyone will be able to keep personal means to get by (this is explained elsewhere) but all the excess wealth will be gone. Again, I give this to achieve full exhodos.

The wealth of Khadija's is so totally ingrained and dominant in the world economy that I have only one way to give it back. I must declare a worldwide international-national debt cancellation as well as a wealth reapportionment according to a formula: (R'193—R'194 in the new constitution). But this wealth will not matter so much in the future, because we will be eliminating vast amounts of Ishtarian artificial scarcity, and at the same time we will open the production floodgates. Thus everyone will soon be much richer in terms of material things.

Soon we will start casting entire apartments and homes out of concrete in giant robotic injection molds. Then we will finish the units in factories using mass production techniques. Thus our homes will now fall in cost like everything else we make in factories. Then we will ship the new units on 7-meter gauge railcars that can have 9-meter wide beds for shipping. Then we will stack-up whole apartments like giant bricks and pour concrete between them. Thus we will crush the cost of construction. The 7-meter gauge computer-controlled railcars will also go 3 to 4 times faster than cars, so our cities can be 3 to 4 times the radius and still have the same commute. The result is cities approaching 36 to 64 times the area and the same commute time. Thus there will no longer be any urban land scarcity, or high prices for urban land.

All exhods will be required to live entirely according to the ways of their host society and no Exhod will ever have the right to ask for any compromise from their host society's culture and rules. All Exhods must blend-in totally, live in total peace, and fade away. All of this will be necessary to move everyone.

I give all these things to the host societies for their contribution to a complete ex•hodos, where all exhods are set up. The nations that move fast will not only get first pick of exhods, they will also get almost three full years of full time labor from their new Exhods. This is done to incentivize early moving

The world's most powerful word

It's the word that moves all the people from the land of no resources and stops the harems. It's the word that forever ends the desperation that is Ishtar's primary driving force. It's the word that ends the Arab struggle to feed and move their people. It's the word that ends the root cause of most of what has plagued mankind since the dawn of history. It's the word that crashes the old interpretive matrix, the old bifurcated and opposed human operating system, where one part of mankind struggles against and lies to the rest as a parasite race. And it's the word that loads the new unified interpretive matrix for all mankind: The new reality where all of mankind works together, cooperating under a unified agenda of more and better for everyone.

The world's most powerful word is the word NOW. And NOW is when the Mideast struggle flips. Now is when the entire Mideast abandons its old ways, and its old gods, and starts to instead follow Pro•men•theus (the pro•mankind•spirit).

Is it an end in itself? or only a means to an end?

The ideologies of Islam and G•oo•dei•ism (the un-chosen base and chosen floating part of the pyramid) were only a treatment and not a cure. Your Mideast religious beliefs are not an objective in themselves. They only came into being to feed the land of no resources until a better way (a new covenant) came along. Well that better way has come, today... NOW. Now you must see that your old struggle is over. And now you have a new prophet and a new clearly defined struggle with a reasonably attainable final objective clearly in sight.

A golden opportunity

The portion of mankind trapped by Ishtar and the parasite's agenda should not let this golden opportunity slip away. Here are two tickets to paradise, but you all must rapidly cleave and abandon your old religions and follow me as your new prophet to get a ticket for your people.

One step away

You of the Mideast have been struggling for thousands of years to unify mankind in a way that would feed and move all the people. Here in this message, I present that objective in one step, one easy step that will be completed in 12-years. What more can you ask for?

Everyone out

Everyone living in an un-curable desert badlands dedicated to Ishtar must leave. Once everyone is moved from the world's badlands, there will be no more obligations to the poor people back home. No more religious duties and taxes, because the struggle will be over.

Knock over the rain barrel

It is time to knock over the rain barrel and completely depopulate all desperate and festering lands of no resources, and kill the demon Ishtar forever.

Exodus by Bob Marley

This will be the new anthem of the Mideast. "Moving all the people".

Money is only the secondary Arab goal

People frequently become so accustomed to striving for their secondary goals, that they completely forget about their primary goals. Don't get confused. The primary goal of Ishtar is either:

a/ Moving all the poor desperate people to lands that can actually support them. Or.

b/ Changing those wastelands so they can support people without having to buy-in food.

Here are two tickets to paradise, a new unified world of more and better for all, and an end to the demon Ishtar/ and the desperation it breeds. We (mankind) shall now move ALL the people from all desperate Ishtarian places that cannot be made to support people, even if they don't want to go. For nobody shall be left behind to bring Ishtar (a numen, a spirit of a place) back to life again. Then we will end the bifurcated adversarial sort of mankind that has reversed human evolution for thousands of years.

Judgement day for the land of no resources

This is a very dangerous time for Ishtar's people. Be aware that I am able to offer peace and relocation to you, only because I tell the outies to focus their anger on the unrepentant. So if you delay or attempt negotiations, you will not make it. You must surrender immediately and unconditionally as I demand.

Islam and Ishtar must die as group spirits, and the land of no resources must be totally depopulated. This will now happen. The only question is how it will happen.

Palu town and the matrix

Ishtar is bad news for everyone. Just look at how Islamic Palu town is located at the focal point of a tsunami scoop. Tsunamis washing southeast down the coast will end up being funneled right into the center of Palu town. So, this is more than JUST a dumb place to have a town. This is the one place that nobody should ever have a town. Yet there's a big Muslim town that is centered right in the totally predictable tsunami damage area depicted below.

Baiturrahman Mosque, next door to Palu Grand Mall

How can it be? Surely there were prior tsunamis that hit this place. How could people be so dumb as to put their town center and mosque right at the throat of a tsunami scoop?

Perhaps the simplest explanation is that the desperately poor ancient Arabians sent a few men to lay claim to some free land that nobody wants after the last tsunami. Either that or they trade some beads for the land. Then, after some generations when people forgot, the Mideast gains some valuable land to sell again.

So it seems that the same people running the mosque religion and collecting its zakat taxes are also making money on selling/renting urban land in the world's tsunami funnels. These are places that were originally acquired for nothing because nobody wanted them while the memories were still fresh.

The people of Palu are mostly unchosen harem byproduct people, and the chosen Harem spawn running Islam's empire don't care if they live or die. In fact if they die, there are more places to sell for the fresh new loyal tax-paying harem spawn. This way, they can breed more harem spawn and hopefully one day breed a prophet like me who will figure out a way to peacefully end the problems of the Mideast. Or is that just an excuse?

Do you understand that Ishtar and its religion of slavery yet? It is a futile thing that is not for anyone's benefit. It is a demon, a diametrically opposed parasitic spirit without any redeeming virtues at all. In fact, Ishtar doesn't even benefit the chosen harem spawn over the long run.

Even the top 1% of the harem spawn grow dumber each year. This is because whatever advances their harem breeding produces, it will never come close to the genetic degradation Ishtar causes among the rest of humanity with its breeding customs and myths like Sin•dar•Ella = no•give•she. So all mankind devolves each year towards Idiocracy, even the "brilliant" haremi.

Inverted Ishtar = shh•te•our, is just a brain-dead stupid thing that needs to be eliminated from mankind. And Ishtar is nobody's fault. It is just a stupid thing that evolved in mankind — a stupid thing that must end.

Do you see the matrix yet?

Do you think it is just an accident that New York, Beijing, Delhi, London, Hamburg, Bangkok, Amsterdam, San Diego, Washington D.C., Seattle, Dubai, Lisbon and many other top cities are located in tsunami funnels?

Please believe me when I say that all anarchy is false anarchy. Even the scientific method is a false anarchy. The desperate land of no resources has always been there, for thousands of years, pretending to be one of you. It is always looking for angles, always leaning the boat, and always bending the truth in a direction that it could profit from. The sum total of all these self-reinforcing Mideast lies about politics, economics, law, morality, science, and many other things makes up the matrix, the web of lies that the Mideast has spun to feed on the outside world. Now we will awaken from the matrix and stop lying to ourselves as a species.

Judgement day for the Ishtarians

The outcome of my enlightenment will be fairly binary or yes/no for the Ishtarians. It is truly a heaven or hell moment for all of you, a judgement day for the evil ex•pull of the parasitic Mideast.

The world now knows all about you

The world will now know how you were behind the Black Death of 542 and 1347 under similar circumstances. And they will know about your flea bags, or flee bags, and small packs, and die'em bags, and scar-let letters. If WW3 happens now, whatever the ostensible cause, you will no longer be invisible.

And if WW3 happens now...

Whatever the ostensible cause, it was the harem bred ones with many half-brothers — with identical Y-genes and dissimilar X-genes. But only do this if there is WW3. If there is no WW3, nobody is to do any such thing. Everyone shall be given a way out so mankind may prevent a great war. You must all live and remain in the house of peace.

Hopefully, the entire Mideast will cleave as one and we can just end the 6,000-year war of all wars, the struggle or whatever it is called. Hopefully the world will believe and obey the new universal prophet when he declares forgiveness due to a time of ignorance, and offers two tickets to paradise if there is no great war. If we can end Ishtar peacefully and nearly everyone cleaves rapidly to spirits of Pro•men•theus (Prometheus) and Eu•man•idi (humanity), the new prophet commands total forgivingness of all past sins due to a time of ignorance and slavery.

There is no longer a need for poverty

Economies actually work better the more we ask of them. And nearly all important resource scarcities are an illusion. There is simply no need for mankind to continue with the ancient ways of poverty and parasitic reductionism. So we will ramp-up the world economy like we did during World War 2, but go further to the upside on output. We will industrialize the remainder of the world and free everyone else of their poverty — especially the desperate poverty that Ishtar feeds on.

A worldwide one child plus policy

The new wealth will however will cause a population boom among the poorest parts of mankind unless we take measures to control population. Therefore, we will institute a China-like 1-child-plus policy for the nations that have had a population explosion over the past half century. This however, will not apply to nations and ethnic groups with slightly growing, or declining populations.

There is no need for Ishtar

All nations who cleave to me and my plan shall be fed and if necessary moved. Thus nobody will be obligated to the poor people back home, and none shall be slaves of Ishtar. Instead they shall be slaves of my agenda, and my 12-year plan for staging a war economy without a war and moving all the people and peacefully ending Ishtar. zerbra

Which way is up?

Ishtar is not up. It is just something that works for a desperate part humanity unable to meet its material needs. Absolutely every nation on Earth will be better off once Ishtar is gone and forgotten.

Only the devil needs you to hate your fellow man

The devil (de•ex•pull) of the parasitic Mideast is a lying thing that must exist in darkness or people will not follow its stupid inverted agenda.

No scarcity of raw materials

There is no real scarcity of raw materials in our world. It is all an illusion. It is just like how the Romans in fertile Italy thought they were dependent on Mideast grain for some 800 years. Today the same thing has happened with petroleum and copper and so many other raw materials. But there is no real scarcity of raw materials. It is all just an illusion, al•chemy to increase prices.

Ishtar is just so stupidly wasteful

The host wastes many times as much as Ishtar gains. And that is not counting the deaths and genetic degradation that Ishtar causes. Here is a new and better way to run the world. And here is a way for mankind to begin evolving upwards again.

You must help me sweep the doubters away

You Arabs must take to the streets and chant Al Mahdi so the doubters among you can be swept-away. This is also so the outies can see your unanimity, and trust that you will all live in peace as people of truth and light instead of the spreading darkness of the waining cresce•n't moon = growing•not moon.

You are no longer invisible

How will you run a world where you are no longer invisible? How can you live in such a world unless you surrender and yield?

Thanks to my 7,000-page description and mirror of Ishtar, the other part of the world can see you now. They also know pretty much everything about you, and all your tactics. How will you go on?

The new world

1/ Nobody will bother to import Ishtar's oil... and everybody will assume all future commodity shortages are another one of your hoaxes.

2/ Everybody now sees Ishtar in broad daylight, and nearly everyone will hate it. And the ones that don't hate it will all be afraid to work for it.

3/ Thanks to the new democratic design, our democracies now become almost completely impervious to Ishtar's corruption.

4/ Thanks to the capital reapportionment, Ishtar own no property and it will be owed no debt.

6/ Ishtar will no longer be able to sell exit visas for exit promises because the people of the outside world will move all your people.

7/ There are many overlapping measures to undermine the long term value of Gold, diamonds, crypto currencies, and similar stores of value. All will plummet in value now.

8/ There will be a new world government replacing the UN. This new form of world government is specifically designed to minimize the power of Ishtar, in stark contrast to the UN, which was designed to maximize Ishtar's power.

Thinking of going doomsday?

They will find every one of you

Don't overestimate the power of a combined nuclear and pan-epidemic attack. Whatever doomsday weapons you use, wherever you hide, there will still be about a billion survivors in the countryside. These will get you all, due to a combination of vengeance, fear and necessity — as well as the command of the new prophet. But this will only happen if WW3 happens now.

We live in an age of computerized gene analysis. It will not be hard to find all the male descendants of Abraham with very similar Y-chromosomes, and dissimilar X-chromosomes. And there will be a new and totally incorruptible democracy for administering those tests. How will the Ishtar corrupt those tests? How will it hide?

American-style surrender

Behind door #1 is a great and destructive war for the sons of Abraham. Behind door #2 is an American-style surrender and Mar-shall plan, where we move all the people, train them, and put them on their feet economically. Don't be stupid.

Time of ignorance — It's nobody's fault

Ishtar is just something that evolved. It is nobody's fault. It is just this incredibly wasteful and sub-optimal bunch of meccan-isms that life evolved, like giant wasteful sauropod dinosaurs and giant 30,000 calorie Jackfruits. What a stupidly wasteful way this was for plants to spread their seeds. Likewise, Ishtar is just this incredibly stupid thing that evolved in humanity and the faster we can end it, the better-off we will all be. And this goes for everyone.

A Turkish proverb

"No matter how far you have gone down the wrong road, turn back." [Once you realize you are on the wrong road, you don't keep going, you turn back as soon as you can.]

There is no reason to stay with Ishtar

Why do you struggle to keep poverty and human desperation alive on Earth, when there is a better way? Why do you preserve the ancient leftover meccan-isms from a time when the world was poor and stupid? Ishtar is no longer necessary. It is time for Ishtar to die.

Fear the outies more now

Whatever happens, Ishtar dies now. It is futile to remain cleaved to Ishtar now. You don't need to fear Ishtar any longer. Now you must fear the outies and the group spirit of Promentheus more. Now the spirt of Pro-men-theus is no longer chained to a remote mountain peak. Now he will be everywhere.

Everyone now cleaves

Now with Ishtar petrified at its own sight like a gorgon, and because there's strength in numbers, nobody will fear Ishtar's retribution ever again. All the Meccan-isms will stop working. Now there will be a great rebellion against Ishtar.

If you're thinking of playing wait and see. If you're thinking of remaining cleaved to Islam and Ishtar, the new prophet is going all or nothing here. He is commanding total forgiveness for the first to cleave, by focusing all rage on the last to cleave. In fact, he commands the maximum of rage against the last to cleave in order to obtain the maximum forgiveness for the first to cleave.

Nothing will improve your life like cleaving fast, except perhaps being the first to add valuable new explanations of Ishtar's secret ways. And nothing will harm your life like staying cleaved to evil Ishtar, or struggling against this message. And be warned that forgiveness is commanded and obtained for the first to cleave by focusing all eu-man rage on the last to cleave, unless everyone rapidly cleaves, in which case all shall be forgiven.

You can't stop this message

Even your own people will keep my message alive. And technology is different now, so you will not muddle or dilute my message away like you did with the legends of Odious Rex, Al-cibai-de, and the world famous wisdom of Athenian Iso-cracy.

Enslaved as societies

Just as host societies are enslaved by Ishtar as entire societies, so too are Ishtar's own societies enslaved as entire societies. In fact, everyone is enslaved as a society, and by their society.

There is little difference between the people enslaved as Ishtar's shepherds and people enslaved as Ishtar's flock. Most everyone aware of what Ishtar actually is, wants it to stop. Let's everyone just stop the stupid meccan-isms that have enslaved humanity for thousands of years.

Now we will build a real incorruptible democracy, so we the people can hear the true group (ummah) spirit of Pro-men-theus.

It is called Shh•te•our

Do you really think people are publishing books, and having discussions about a thing called shh•te•our = quiet•you•our-thing?

The machines really do rule the world

There are a great many ancient and evil mechanisms that rule the world for nobody's benefit. Their only purpose is to feed the Mideast until someone can figure out how to create a better situation. If you forgive and feed the Mideast, until the Mideast people can get on their feet economically, we can stop all these mechanisms.

The little drummer boy of myth

When the great profit comes, his message will not be as one super-profound thought, but like the little (big) drummer boy of myth, thousands of truths forming a whole new tempo/ temple/ religion.

ignorance and judgement day

In times of extreme ignorance, you should only judge people based on what they do after the revelations surface.

Ishtar is the parasite, not the people trapped by it

Make sure everyone knows the difference. And make sure you can tell the difference between a yellow and a green Semite before you take any action. The green ones are still working for Mideast Inc. The yellow ones are not. Now recall how during World War II, the yellow Mideast descendants had to wear yellow stars.

Everyone is trapped by their matrix programs

Even we Americans in the supposed land of the free must obey our government, just like North Koreans and Arabians. How does a person change things in a society dedicated to darkness and secrecy at all costs, a society that will kill to preserve this secrecy. Surely it is even harder than in the supposedly free outside world.

Think about cure•ouri

This drug comes from a plant species named Chondo•dendron tomentosum = Cartledge•tree torment•os'em = Cartledge•tree torment•mouth/ nibble'em. The victim is totally awake but paralyzed for the torture. Nobody in it talks about Ishtar. And everyone is terrified by talking about it.

Everyone wants to get away from it

Anyone with any sense wants to get as far away from Ishtar as possible. And all the myths of hell where people spend an eternity being either burned by flames, or devoured by cannibals: that has a basis in Mideast reality. But it is more of a nibbling-down or a burning with tiny burning firebrands over many years. This is what happens to those who betray Ishtar.

Put it in reverse 180°

From now on, all Ishtarians shall redirect their struggle in reverse. From now on, you shall all help eu•man•idi, instead of struggling against it. And you have to work overtime for some years to reverse what you were doing before. It is a condition of your manumission. You must all now work overtime, fixing the world for some years. But after that, you will all be free. And from now on, you will no longer have to pay any money Ishtar. In fact, it will be the worst of crimes to pay money to Ishtar or to buy or display any Ishtar concession products. Now you will all pay taxes and work for your adoptive society instead.

Let them cleave

All you outies, you people outside of Ishtar, give them some time to absorb my message and to cleave against Ishtar.

You can't stop this message

Even the Innies will keep this message alive

Your people are so vulnerable

Your cities are so concentrated and so vulnerable to attack. And all of your people in the outside world are living among outies, and are greatly outnumbered.

Humanity 2.0

This is the major matrix operating system upgrade for humanity. And this message will rule whether or not there is WW3. Regardless of what happens, the matrix upgrade will eventually load and the world will restart under the new upgraded operating system and programming. We should all consider ourselves lucky if we can just restart using the new software upgrade of Eu•man•idi 2.0 without vast numbers of people dying.

Christopher Marlowe, Tamburlaine II, 4.1.201

"And, till by vision or by speech I hear
Immortal Jove say 'Cease, my Tamburlaine',
I will persist a terror to the world. [That time has come.]

There is no longer any need for economic parasitism

Now that we really have robots, everything has changed. Now that we will eliminate Ishtar's artificial commodity scarcity, everything will change. Now with our rail based cities, even the big heavy things like buildings will grow cheap the way that electronics have.

Now the world's economies will actually work better the more we ask of them. And we are going to ask a great deal from our economies for a while. There is simply no need for any Ishtarian ex•pull. In 3-years (or less) humanity can have a tidal wave of abundance just like America did during WW2. In fact, we will now institute a worldwide war economy that is hopefully without any war killing or damage at all. Instead, we will have a world-war on scarcity, poverty, ignorance, and all the old ways of Ishtar.

The most beautiful and perfect message

All former Ishtarians must say that mine is the most beautiful message you have ever heard — more perfect than any book before. You will say that I must be the only true prophet of all mankind. You will say this, so I can unify the world and sweep away all of the old corrupt religions: Religions that the desperate and parasitic Ishtarian world created to feed itself, and batten on the misfortunes and stumbling blocks of its host societies.

The great transcendental message for mankind

Don't press the violence button as a knee-jerk reaction. You will have plenty of time for that later if you decide. Just read a little bit of my 7,000-page message. A real prophet has arrived with a great transcendental message for all mankind.

The real devil we face

Mankind faces a greater problem, and a greater risk, as explained in the Volcanic theory of climate section.

Another in a long history of ~110,000-year ice ages is coming and we need to make hay while the sun shines. We need to prepare.

You will not be excluded from the new democracy

1-in-500 people will be confirmed to the Senate annually. Thus about 4% of the population will be confirmed to the Senate. This is a fairly easy bar to surmount. So if you really are so smart Mr. harem bro, you should have no problem making a valuable contribution to the pro•men•thean cause, and getting confirmed to the Senate where you are, in your adoptive community. Then you will be of Senate status. Then you will have the full rights of a native-born citizen in that nation. Also, your offspring will get Senate child benefits from the new government, as all Senate offspring will.

Service in the Senates of a broad democracies will replace the service of Ishtar. Those who serve the cause of more and better and help mankind to rise will easily be elected Senate status. The more you do for mankind, the more official Senate "rock-star" status you will get.

I reverse the degradation of mankind

Under Ishtar, the evolution of the 1% can't counteract the genetic degradation of the other 99% of humanity. Thus you and your childhood myths have causing mankind to evolve backwards. That now stops. Now mankind begins evolving instead of devolving.

How to visualize the parasite's degradation

Let's say that 70-million Haremi are evolving upward each year. This is 1% of world's population. Here I imagine a 10x10 checkerboard topography. On this topography, 99 squares are flat and below X=1, and only 1 square in one corner pops up far above the rest. This is because only 1% of the world is advancing genetically and the rest is degrading. However, I don't think it is 1% that is advancing, I think it is more like 1/10th of 1%, or one per mil that is advancing.

This is how I visualize the distribution of human genetic progress today. There is this tiny peak that is progressing—the Haremi. And the other 99% of mankind is actually going backwards genetically—actually degrading and growing stupider and more animal-like similar to the Idiocracy film.

Now because the 1% relies on the other 99% for breeding stock, and Semitic breeding only produces a small number of the world's new people, the net result is our species is evolving backwards — growing dumber and dumber in every generation. Dumber and dumber grinding slowly towards idiocracy and "the fall" in each generation.

The Idiocracy film trailer

Here in this film is the future of mankind continued under Ishtar. And it is exactly what happened during the European Dark Ages. Just read any of the books from mankind's lost millennia, also the "great age of Islam".

Read these books and compare them with the books of Rome. There is a giant dip in intelligence starting after Rome (~300 AD) and going until maybe the year 1300 AD. Let's not go down the tubes again.

Give up your library

Release the Alexandria library. Mankind is ready. You are commanded to make your great library public now that we are ending the bifurcation of mankind.

Alexander Solzhenitsyn, Gulag Archipelago

"If only it were all so simple! If only there were evil people somewhere, insidiously committing evil deeds, and it were necessary only to separate them from the rest of us and destroy them." [Now we can see who they are.]

Marco Polo, CH. 3

"He remembered the hated belief of the Saracens [the Sara•kins], by which every sin is regarded as a lawful act for men not of their religion, even killing a man."

Ammianus Marcellinus, 354-378AD, 16.3

"Great worry about food implies great indifference to virtue." [You must all cleave now if you want to use this as an excuse. This and many other excuses will slip away if you all fail to rapidly cleave.]

Ishtar petrifies like a gorgon

The secret and curse of the sphinx is no more. The hideous gorgon sees itself in the 7,000-page mirror of Perseus = Br•see•us. The entire hideous elephant = al•eff•n't now petrifies with fear.

From now on, Ishtar will no longer work, and the jihad = struggle is over. Cleave to the Mahdi who commands, 'Time of ignorance' and forgiveness for those who cleave fast. Cleave to the new prophet who ends Islam, frees all the slaves, and moves all the people.

Time of ignorance

It is easiest to plead time of ignorance early on. But after a short time it will become exponentially harder. It is time for all Ishtarians follow their new universal prophet. It is time for everyone to cleave.

Good and evil

Soon all will be able to tell the good god of the host from evil ex•pull of the parasite. Soon there will be no excuse for the evil ex-pull of the parasitic land of no resources.

T.E. Lawrence, Seven Pillars of Wisdom, Ch. 3

[Of the Arabs] "Their largest manufacture was of creeds: almost they were monopolists of revealed religions. Three of these efforts had endured among them: [Christianity, Islam and Judaism] two of the three had also born export [carried in export] \(in modified forms\) to non-Semitic peoples."

What exactly are you loyal to?

Are you loyal to your clan? Your nation?... Or to the best future of all mankind, where most of mankind evolves upward, instead of less than 1%. I am loyal to the cause of all mankind and what is best for life on earth.

The devil lies about everything

Great good is the devil's best mask

Truth, goodness, justice and god's-will are some of the best covers and excuses for the evil or ex•pull activity of the parasite. Our leaders are all slaves under the thumbs of their blackmailing masters for their heinous crimes. That is why they were allowed to become our leaders.

Ishtar is still struggling to enslave

America's former slave population

What is the #1 day in Black history? It is 6/19 right? It is June 19, the day emancipation is traditionally celebrated. How can it be in the land of the free that its greatest act of freedom is not celebrated? And what is 1619, but an attempt to hide and cover up the most important day in black history?

It lies like the devil

because it is the de-ex•pull, the parasitic de-ex•pull of the Mideast

Ishtar is a jet black spirit with no redeeming features except that it feeds the desperate Mideast and that it promises to produce the message you are now reading —the message that will end Ishtar. Except for these things, it tells almost nothing but lies. If it didn't lie, nobody would follow it. If you think you found a redeeming feature, you have invariably found a lie. It lies to the outies, and it lies to the innies as well.

Hesiod, c.700BC, Theogony, 26-17

"We can say many false things as if they were true.
But how will we know what the truth really is."

[The harem-bred parasite people have lied so much, even they don't know what the truth is. Thus, with regard to knowledge destruction in the group-mind (also the god mind/Ummah) Ishtar is a sort of cancer.]

To be a hero

If you want to be treated as a hero, you have to act like a hero and take on some risk. You must cleave fast. And nothing will help you like being an early spreader or shouter of this message. Keep the names and contact information of the people you spread this message to. This is so you will know how to reach your witnesses. Such innie heroes will be treated as brave war heroes by the outies. These outies shall hide, defend and watch over you for going against Ishtar.

Time to cleave

You stand at a great crossroads. It is judgment day for Ishtar Inc. How do you all cleave? Will you cleave with the hideous gorgon/devil? Will you push the total war button in a futile effort to save awful Ishtar, when a better way exists for everyone?

Ishtar dies now

Ishtar instantly paralyses and petrifies with fear on any talk of its true nature. This is because Ishtar is a gorgon that cannot withstand its own hideous image, once the truth is seen. In other myths, it is like vampires that die in the daylight of the truth of what they are doing. So now is when you all destroy every aspect of Ishtarian culture except the books and library.

Same direction please

Here is a total re-write of geo-political reality. No longer will humanity be bifurcated as parasite against host. No longer will there be the hugely wasteful parasite agenda struggling to reduce its host and waste its host's energies. Now all mankind is united under a single unified agenda of more and better for everyone.

Procopius, c.565 AD, Secret History, 10.3

"When a man cares nothing for the infamy of his actions [because he is leaving an escape-goat] and thus does not hesitate for fear of being known as a revolting character, no path of lawlessness is closed to him, but armed with the shamelessness visible at every moment in his face, he does the most despicable things and then proceeds cheerfully and without worry." [This is the way of Ishtar. Its followers attack in secrecy and blame others and are thus free to use the most reprehensible tactics. The sun has risen and no longer will this happen. The sun has risen and now your gazettes are laid open for all to see. Behold my great library of Arab literature fully explained. "The Devil's Confession" in its own words.]

Lucretius, c. 60 BC, Bk 2.1

"What joy to watch [two] opposing enemies assembled on the field of battle—when you yourself have no part in their danger.

This is the greatest joy of all: To stand aloof in a quiet citadel, stoutly fortified by the teachings of the wise. Gazing down from those heights on others wandering aimlessly in a vain search for a way of life, pitting... one against another, fighting for superiority... O joyless hearts of men! O minds without vision! How dark and dangerous is the life in which your tiny lifespan is frittered away in. Do you not see that your nature is barking [you human dogs] for only two things: A body free of pain and a mind free from worry and fear, released for the enjoyment of pleasurable sensations?"

[This was written by an Arab. Look at the words: citadel, barking dogs and a short lifespan. The Arabs are the only ones that call men dogs and talk of citadels. And the chosen harem bred ones see themselves as an immortal brotherhood. Apparently they also set-up their enemies to kill each other. It is largely forgotten today that Ancient Rome was at war with Persia for centuries until both collapsed around 600AD. Then in 636, began the Islamic conquest, and the Great Age of Islam, due to the vacuum created by the fall of their enemies battling each other.]

Iran and N.Korean wars

can be stopped with only a thought

The thought is that someone else is using using North Korea and Iran as suicide puppet states to provoke more military spending (which is over 90% stolen).

Victoria's Secret or Victorious Secret

This is a blurd, or blurring word/term for a problematic secret meme that leaked out onto the lips of the outside world. The real term is Victorious Secret, the Arab secret, the lacey=al•A•see, matrix under the main cloth of the matrix.

Cicero, De Officiis, 2.21.75, as quoted by Petrarch

"What powers we may possess come from the weakness of others rather than any excellence in ourselves." [The Mideast comes by most of its power by the weakness they create in their host societies. They degrade our ability to understand, so they can get away with more. They also destroy our ability to provide for our own necessities so they can step in and sell us their necessities at shortage and famine pricing.]

William Bullein, 1573, A Dialogue against the Pestilence

"If a plague happens, it is no great loss. It delivers the poor from their pain and misery into a better world. ... In such plagues our poor people benefit greatly. Their loss is our good fortune. When they become naked, we then are clothed against their will. With their alms and doles we are relieved. Their sickness is our health, their death our life."

Hawthorne, House of the Seven Gables, Ch. 1

"Maule [mal] had addressed him... and uttered a prophecy... 'God.' said the dying man, pointing his finger, with a ghastly look, at the undismayed countenance [facial expression] of his enemy, 'God will give him blood to drink!'" [It never has to go this way for the Ishtarrians again.]

Thin Red Line film about the battle of Guadalcanal.

"This great evil, where's it come from? How'd it steel into the world? What seed, what root did it grow from? Who's doing this? Who's killing us, robbing us of life and light, mocking us with the sight of what we might have known. Does our room [our•oo'em=progeny] benefit the earth? Does it help the grass to grow, the sun to shine? Is this darkness in you too? Have you passed through this night? ... I'm going to sink my teeth into your liver. You're dying. See them birds up there, they gonna eat you raw."

Don't underestimate El's fury

The group spirit of El, is an aspect of Pro•men•theus = pro•man•spirit (Prometheus). It awakens when the will of Prometheus is extremely frustrated. And while the spirit of Prometheus is rational and will listen to reasoning, the spirit of EI is something totally different. It is not logical and it is also violent and war-like. And it doesn't go to sleep again easily once it is awakened.

Don't risk waking EI. You must all cleave quickly, and confess and reverse everything. And you must now all struggle to help the world to work better instead of struggling to harm it and feed on it. And you must all make a public show of what you are doing.

Once this message goes global, it is my command that you all go to your nearest Mosque, and Synagogue and start destroying it. It should be just like what happened with the Berlin wall, with small hand tools mostly. The show with everyone participating is the important part, not the rapid demolition. Use hammers a bit too small so the demolition can progress over days and weeks and be more heart felt among the outsiders. But first take a wrecking ball to the Dome of the Rock, the Kabbah, Taj-ul in Bhopal, and the Soltani mosque in Tehran. This is to start out with a huge and impressive bang. This is in addition to the complete demolition that will take many weeks and result in the building foundations being completely removed from ground.

Film and post everyone's demolition participation all over the world. And make sure you remove all of the foundations and symbolically eradicate all of the mosques and synagogues from the world. This includes the Dome of the Rock, the Kaaba, and the temple of Jerusalem. All shall be totally eradicated.

Upload videos of people stating their name and contact information and showing them bashing their Ishtarian temple to the ground and ripping out its foundations. And do the same thing when they burn their slave's clothing.

Bible, Zechariah, 12:2

"Behold, I will make Judaea [Arabia] a pot of trembling fear, fearing those around it. When they shall lay siege against Judaea [Arabia]. On that day I shall make Judaea [Arabian affiliation] a burdensome weight, and all people that burden themselves with it shall be cut into pieces, when all the people of the earth will gather together against it. In that day, said the Lord, I will smite every horse [harem-bro] with astonishment [stun, stupefy, bewilder, dis•may them, leaving them unable to do anything, petrified like a gorgon], and its [frontman] riders with madness. And I [the great good spirit of mankind] will open my eyes upon the house of Judaea [Arabia], and will smite every horse [harem-bro] of that people with blindness.

And the people and rulers of Judah [Arabia] shall say with their hearts that the lord of the host [as opposed to the parasite] is their god.

On that day, like a forest fire, or a torch upon a haystack, they shall devour the rulers of Judah [Arabia,] and all those around them. Eventually Jerusalem, even Jerusalem will grow a new population [after its slaughter]."

Don't resist

If any of you resist this message in even the slightest way, it may harm your people thousands of times over.

You are wrong and guilty

You are all criminals and everything you have is stolen. You have been worshipping the devil and its countless lies. How can you act as anything but humble sinner suppliant refugees begging to be helped out of the disaster that befell your people.

EVIL = ex•pull = what the parasite sucks out.

DEVIL = de•ex•pull = about the ex•pull

Genesis, 1:16

"And God made two great lights. The greater light to rule the day and the lesser light to rule the night." [Most people in the host part of the world have underestimated the power of Mideast darkness/ evil in this world.]

You have one chance

You have one chance to join with the host, and it is now. Don't delay or you may blow your golden opportunity.

The first mover advantage

The first Ishtarian nation to cleave gets first priority in Exhodos. Then comes the next nation. A similar sort of thing happens in the outside world on an individual basis with recent Mideast immigrants. The most eager anti-Ishtarans will obviously be the most sought after. There is safety in numbers when you rebel against Ishtar. The first and most courageous individuals must thus be rewarded greatly. All first cleaver nations jump ahead of all later cleavers regardless of the Arab queue. Only among people who cleaved at the same time does the old Mideast queue come into play as a tie breaker.

Fear the Outies more than the Innies

If there ever was a time when you had to fear the outies more than the innies, it is now. Cleave fast for cleaving will protect you from the Outies.

Time to cleave

There is no halfway in the shadows of mankind's ignorance any more. The sun has risen and everything's true color is plain to see.

"We all hated Islam, but everyone was afraid to go against it."

Say this

First-hand and relevant

Mine is the only first-hand pro•eff•it's message you have. All the others are all at least 3rd hand. Only now do you hear the real voice of a true prophet.

Tom Bro•caw, NBC News, 1989.11.11

"The cold stone barrier is alive with excitement as the West greets the East. It's like new year's eve, only better here because it's not been celebrated in so many years. It's as if all the energy towards isolation is now being spent on joy and a new beginning."

Celebrate like its 1989

Watch the clips of when the Berlin wall came down. You should try to emulate and amplify the sentiment here. You should all be dancing in the streets for the liberation of your people and the unification of mankind.

Celebrate your prophet's arrival. Soon everyone will be free. Look at the videos of Berlin in 1989. Look at the joy of being free and smashing the much hated structure that enslaved their community. You are all now free from horrible Ishtar. You must all celebrate and destroy the edifices that enslaved you.

Dancing in the streets and celebrating the collapse of Islam will send a very important message to the outies. You must all celebrate your liberation from Islam, or they may think you in some way regret it.

You can also dance naked in the streets. If you do this, you will send an even stronger message, that Islam is dead and no longer to be feared. And dancing naked in the streets will also say visually that you will do whatever crazy thing your Mahdi even suggests might help you – and at the same time show that you are all no longer slaves of horrible Ishtar. But hold back on dancing naked in the streets unless you really need it, unless things start spiraling out of control due to the violence of the learn-it-once-and-never-forget-it dog-men among you.

Don't forget to celebrate

There should be a spirit of celebration in all you do now, except the videos where you curse your former religion.

My answer to the Arab question

It is that automation and artificial reality have altered the ancient human reality of scarcity. Thanks to robots on the supply side and artificial reality on the demand side, we are about to conquer scarcity worldwide. There is simply no longer any need to fight over (or hide) scarce resources. Now we will have a world of automation and abundance. After thousands of years, we will now move all the people and all live in peace.

A happy ending for the world's oldest tragedy

Let's not have a repeat of 480BC, 146BC, 69AD, 525AD, 1258AD, and 1491AD when much of the Mideast died.

Let's not screw it up again

This time the 5,800-year division among men will end forever, and we will again start progressing upward as a species — no longer will we go sideways, or in reverse.

Are you Ishtarrians ready to fight WW3?

You will have:

- 1) No money.
- 2) No debts owed to you.
- 3) No valuable resources to sell.
- 2) No invisibility.
- 3) No secret code.
- 4) No secret tactics.
- 5) No threat of retribution advantage.
- 6) No ability to sell exit promises.
- 7) No ability to command loyalty from past ex-hods.
- 8) Now many will think that Ishtar is the root of all evil.

The real analogy of the cave

Now the sun shines into every part of your 5,800-year old cave. Behold the accumulated filth. Behold how your struggle has been the #1 thing wrong with mankind.

I am the savior and new prophet of the Mideast

Say this to everyone among you. Say this over and over so I may sweep away Ishtar like flipping a light-switch. Tell them that that I am obviously the Mahdi and the savior of the Arabs. Call me Salvador Mundi, like the Da Vinci painting, with its crystal clear representation of the world.

EI, Pro•men•theus, the all-powerful group spirit

The shared group spirit of Pro•men•theus has always been hundreds of times more powerful than Ishtar, the group spirit of the parasitic land of no resources. You don't stand a chance now that everyone can hear the high one's voice. You also don't stand a chance now that everyone can see you.

Ishtar will now be seen as the root of all evil

Ishtar will now be understood by all as the root cause of just about everything wrong with humanity. It is folly to stay cleaved to Ishtar.

The Ishtar spirit cannot exist any longer

You are all mostly by definition living in places that should not be populated. You have been living as thieves. You can no longer continue on along that path thanks to my message.

The sooner the better

If Ishtar and Islam died over the course of say 6 hours, it would be much more convincing that if this took 2-days or 2-weeks. Not only will a delay be a mere delay, but it will also make the outies doubt the unity of your people, and this will have a multiplicative effect on their resistance to accepting your exhodos. So it is best to kill Ishtar/Islam fast.

Present a totally united front

Nothing will help improve the future for the Ishtarrians like unity. And nothing will speak of unity like the speed at which you one-and-all cleave to my new message.

Your best and final offer

I hereby instruct the outies to make mine their best offer to the innies. Then they shall rapidly take benefits away, and increase punishments, as time goes on. In fact, there should be an exponential reduction in benefits for early cleaving and an exponential increase in punishments for late cleaving.

You innies must realize that you will never get an offer as good as my first offer. So you all might as well just cleave immediately and unconditionally. You will lose all your stolen excess wealth, but you will not be totally bankrupted unless you are interred for violations. Life will go on for you if you cleave fast.

The golden day

Maybe it will be a few days. Maybe it will not. The sooner you post your cleaving videos, the sooner you will have been deemed to have cleaved away from Islam/Ishtar. The first ones to cleave will get great rewards and honors, the last will suffer the focused rage. Except for the most heinous crimes, all who confess all, explain all, and renounce all on the first day will get amnesty. These will all be as considered as acts of war that happened in a time of ignorance, before anyone really understood what was really going on.

Spread this message and be a hero. 'Struggle' against it and you will be seen as the devil itself. In fact, we shall preserve the first to cleave, by redirecting all EI's fury against the last to cleave. The outies are commanded to protect and preserve the first cleavers as heroes — for taking the greatest risk, going against Ishtar. And 10 steps later, the outies are also commanded to treat the last cleavers as the devil itself, focusing all their rage on these people.

A world without Ishtar

What if we could make that happen without anyone being killed? Oh what a joy that would be.

Give them no excuses

You of Ishtar, the outside world will be looking for every excuse to hate you and to destroy your people. Don't give the world any excuses now that they all suddenly know the truth about Ishtar.

You must say it like you mean it

1/ If your cleaving videos are not sufficiently filled with the correct sort of emotion, your clip may be ignored by the authorities judging your video after the fact.

2/ Clips should not exceed 2 minutes.

3/ You must include your full name, email, ID number and phone number.

4/ You must post all three cleaving videos:

a/ You must put shit in the holiest book of your former religion, and then close the book on the shit. Then you must curse that book and burn that book. You must also dance three times around the flames burning the book while you cheer the book's destruction.

b/ You must take part in the destruction of a temple of your former religion.

c/ You must burn your slave's clothing.

d/ Then if applicable, you must post a video where you confess all Ishtarian tactics and all destructive activities you know about or have ever participated in.

Everyone must post a shit in their holy book video

You must all post your own shit in your holy book video online under your name. This video must clearly show you putting fresh shit in your most holy book by whatever means. Then you must close the book on the shit and mash the shit into the book's pages. Then you must curse your holy book. Then you must burn the holy book and dance around the fire three times shouting curses against your previous religion. All of this must be clearly depicted on posted video. You Ishtarians must all realize that few things will make your life better going forward than rapidly posting a shit in your holy book video.

Other Mideast religions

I ask people to post videos where they shit-in and curse all of the world's ancient holy books that have tax-paying false religions built on top of them. This includes all religions that burn or once burnt super-expensive Arabian incense.

Be my greatest proponents

You Arabs must become the greatest proponents of my message. You must make me your new universal prophet, replacing all the other former Mideast prophets, be they Mohammed, Jesus, Abraham, Zeus, Zarathustra, Zoroaster, or whoever.

Show the cleaving on Mideast media

All broadcasts in all Muslim nations shall say something like: "Here we are in <insert city>, where everyone has unanimously decided that Andrew is the new prophet of the entire Mideast. One and all they are cleaving to Andrew as the Mahdi, the new prophet. Here we see them defiling and cursing the old false Koran."

No middle ground

There can be no in-between, or indifference because the parasites agenda is diametrically opposed to everything that over 99% of the world wants. Either your people unequivocally and completely give up Islam, Ishtar, and the parasite's agenda, or you do not.

HOW TO ACT

Be full of regret and guilt

You Ishtarians were all wrong. You are all sorry for what has happened. You were all acting out of ignorance, and fear of going against Ishtar. You are now all as beggars grateful for the charity of your generous benefactors. You must all have this mindset, or the cleaving may not really work.

No hatred

Be as apologetic and humble as you can. Your people were wrong. You will not be allowed even a drop of hatred or even dislike to taint all of your people. The anger must cease entirely, or it will be as one rotten tomato contaminating a huge barrel of sauce.

Remember, any hatred, aggression, arguing or Islamic clothing will be as a rotten tomato in the mix of your people. No provocations at all — nothing even close.

You innies will get what you give

If you want a little war, the outies will give you a little war. If you want a big war like with Xerxes and Mongke Kahn, the outies will give you a big war, for I command them to fight back in an escalating manner, like a poker player that knows he has a better hand. Remember, that no matter how much your side fights now, you will suffer much more in return until you are all wiped out. And this will be focused on the west coast of Arabia and all the Harem-bros around the world.

No violence against outies

I instruct the outies to give your people at least 10-fold collective retribution for any violence against them. You Arabs are however free to arrest or otherwise purge yourselves of all your own people who might create trouble for your nations.

You of Arabia's empire

Much of the world may now be looking for an excuse to harm you. Will you give it one? If you fight, it will quickly become you and everyone who looks like they might be one of you — as thousands of years of evil ex•pull comes back to haunt you.

All violence will backfire

Make no mistake about it, if you become violent, your option will rapidly narrow and become worse.

If you go Fire-of-Rome again

Mankind went down this path before in 68AD, after the world's dirtiest secret got out, and there was mass starvation in the Mideast as a result. Then some people set fire to Rome. This had a more than a September-11 effect on the Romans. Then there was the year of 4-emperors. Then in 69AD, the inevitable happened and the Romans rowed down and killed everyone in Judaeen Arabian. Before going down this path, you might want to look at the Roman-massacre-of-Judaeen-Arabia section. There is much to learn there. You might also want to consider that we are living in the information age and we have gene testing today, unlike the Romans.

Behold the devil/ de-ex•pull

Ishtar was responsible for both WW2 and the holocaust. It was responsible for WWI. It was responsible for the Civil War and slavery in the land of the free. In fact Ishtar is not only the main cause of all war, it is the main cause of everything wrong with mankind. It has been lying about the scarcity of oil. It has been lying about tsunami risks and helping us to put the biggest cities of every nation in the jaws of death. It has been lying about the coming ice age. It was responsible for the Black Death, It has been angling for WW3. It was responsible for countless plagues as listed herein (see plague-and-poisoning section). It is a thing that is wholly without any virtue at all. Do you really want to remain cleaved to Ishtar and Islam? Let's just all get rid of Ishtar and start the world over again.

Don't fight

Your only chance of survival is to confess, repent and come over to the side of more and better for everyone. You must all confess all you have done, and all you know about, on public video. It is time to end Ishtar, Ishlam and G•oo•dei•ism forever.

Go into holding patterns

To all Arabs, Muslims, Ishtarians, Harem-Bros and everyone being held under their thumb. Go to your town centers and squares and walk in a look with the others. Walk in 200-600m loops of irregular shapes, everyone does the same loop. Do this every day from 12:00 to 12:30. Show the world that the machines are ready for a new matrix. Post Videos of your participation in the holding pattern.

TO THE OUTIES

Time of ignorance.

Nobody is at fault

Ishtar is just something incredibly stupid that evolved in mankind. And if you want to kill Islam and Ishtar worldwide, you must give total forgiveness to those who cleave immediately.

All Ishtarians will disarm

All Ishtarians found in public with firearms, blades, clubs, bullets, explosives, sticks, or weapons of any kind should spend years under lockup.

We must give the Arabs a way to survive

We can't leave them with no way out. If we do this, we will suffer all sorts of horrible attacks like the Romans suffered before they razed Judaeen Arabia. However, we can and should demand a great deal from them.

The Outies must foster a sellout situation

The first innies who go against Ishtar and Islam risk much. We outies must help them to come over to our side, and help prevent WW3. So we shall treat the first ones as heroes. We shall give great incentives to the Ishtarians that first go against Ishtar. And we must punish the hold-outs severely. This is vitally important. Focus your rage where it will kill Ishtar. This is because killing Ishtar is our first priority, a priority higher even than justice right now.

Killing Ishtar is more important than justice

It is.

To avert a great war, The Innies must have hope

Make sure you give the innies some hope that you are not just going attack them. Let them start confessing. Let them turn against their old agenda, so that Ishtar may be totally ended. You can always change your mind later. There is no point in driving them into martyr mode where they will try to take great numbers of you along with them.

Nobody really knew

Nobody talks about Ishtar very long without disappearing. And there are no previous guidebooks, except that message from 2,000 years ago, the one that was adulterated into the Bible. Except for that, and my message there are no guidebooks that clearly explain Ishtar = shh•te•our.

It is quite hard to see and understand

And it is even harder to explain, and to get people to see and believe your explanations. Believe me, I have worked for over 15 years on this objective.

Nobody talks about it directly

Everyone who knows about it is afraid of it

Nobody wants to become the curare-immobilized br•unch meal once a week for the rest of their life, being slowly nibbled down.

They are going to eat you alive

Theirs is an ancient culture that literally eats people alive, and does it slowly.

Flagellate from Latin Flagellare = to whip

Eff•alli•G•al•A•te = shout•about•the-G-men•eh•you? The word for whipping people to death is the same word as to shout about the secrets of Ishtar and the G-men of the harems.

The hell the Brothers face

Those images of Christian hell, where you are eternally devoured. That is the reality that Mideast people face for the worst crimes against Ishtar. They face a slow all day br•unching, where they are slowly nibbled to death once a week for the rest of their lives. They are allowed to heal a bit, then nibbled some more. And sometimes this happens over years. So you on the outside, you must realize the coercion these people have been living under.

Understand the fear they live under

Most of you on the outside you don't grasp the fear of Ishtar. Everyone who sees it is petrified by it, like they were petrified by the gorgon. They are all afraid of going against it, even to the point of not wanting to say anything that it might not like.

Trapped in a machine

Many Arabs consider themselves trapped in a giant machine.

Forgive them. It was a time of ignorance.

We all must forget and forgive all our hatreds from before this day as happening during a time of ignorance. If we cannot do that, then we may face a horrible war. Please, allow them to repent. Please help the world to stop this stupid bifurcation of mankind. Our species has bigger and better things to do than to continue wasting time contending as parasite and host races.

They all want it to stop more than you do

Those born into it must contribute to the evil parasitic ex•pull of their people. They must do slave rituals, and they must give money and services to their master, the parasitic group effort of their people. All are slaves to the singleminded one-eye, one-ear, one-tooth cause of their people. Who wants to be a slave? And who wants to be evil? And who wants to draw straws to be the next fall guy, or the next suicide bomber? But if nobody does the hard stuff, Mideast Inc. will stop working, and the desperation will build until it Ishtar starts working again. Here is another path.

5,800-years of evolution

You can bet that it evolved some highly effective Meccan•ism to assure loyalty as well as secrecy. Chief among these are that it tries to entrap people to test their loyalty. Everyone in it is terrified by it.

Ishtar is like a peculiar sort of onion

On the outside it appears to be pure white and a thing of goodness, but on the inside, at the center of the onion, it is pure black and evil.

Even I didn't understand it

Around 2007, I first saw through it here and there. Then, after maybe 7-years constant 12-hour a day of reading, writing and pondering, I got about halfway into my understanding of it. I am certain that nearly all people working for it don't really understand it — or they thought something else was going on, or they underestimate how destructive and murderous it actually is. We have to let people confess, repent and explain. Except at the very center of this thing, most people really do not fully understand what is going on. So you can't blame most people for participating in Ishtar prior to today.

Let's just stop the war before it starts

We have better things to do than to start a war of vengeance for something so poorly understood as the mysterious and hidden ways of Ishtar.

“Allah the merciful” is doublespeak

The devil lies about everything. The saying Allah the merciful is actually doublespeak and it actually means the exact diametric 180° opposite. It means death by hell for the people who really do something bad against Ishtar. When I hear the phrase Allah the merciful, I visualize the people being nibbled to death by s•add•istic canaan•nibbles.

It lies like the devil because it is the devil

It is a jet black spirit with no redeeming features whatsoever. If it didn't lie, nobody would follow it. If you think you found a redeeming feature, you found a lie. It lies to the outies, and it lies to the innies as well.

Just a piece

I once knew some Iraqi refugees. I asked a couple different people what they thought of Saddam Hussein, who was still in power at the time. At least three commented that they just wanted a little piece of him making a thumbnail gesture, as if thousands of them would each take a pinch from of him under their thumbnail.

We must match punishments

If Ishtar threatens hell and we on threaten only painless lethal injections, Ishtar may live on. If the Innies are torturing traitors to death over months and years, and we are only locking them up and boring them to death, we are at a tremendous disadvantage in ending Ishtar and Islam. The Innies must fear the outies as much as they fear their own, or we may not be able to kill Ishtar completely.

Our notions of Christian mercy are not real

These were given to us by the Ishtar, so its infiltrators would not need to fear us as much as they fear the Arab cause. This has just changed. Job #1 for the Eu•mans is to kill Ishtar. And to this end, I fully explain the logic of why the outies must match punishments. The unrepentant innies must now equally fear El's fury.

A prime injunction

Do not harm those who immediately surrender, confess and explain. But instead focus your rage on the others who don't surrender, confess, and explain.

Imagine the fear

Recall the film "The Cleaner". Imagine that, but with the people abducted and tortured to death. Everyone who knows about Ishtar is terrified to talk about it with outies, let alone go against it. It is just like standing up to and talking about the mafia. (In fact the Mafia is part of Ishtar) All the parasite's people are all enslaved by the gorgon, a monster that petrifies with fear all who behold it in their vision or imagination. Give them a way out, so that we may kill Ishtar root and branch.

Aeschylus, The Eumenides, c. 458C, 162-170

"Such is your triumph, you young gods
World domination beyond all rights
And world domination held by unrestrained force.
Your throne reeks of death and streams blood,

Blood at its base, and blood at its crown.

The horrible navel-stone at the center of the earth
Its bleeding, covered in corruption, its guilt plain to see.
The prophet has stained/spoiled the hearth of his secret shrine, having himself driven and urged-on its crimes."

Give them an out

You outies: Give the innies a little time to understand. Imagine it is WW2 and we have started dropping leaflets showing the German people that their Nazi government was responsible for Auschwitz. It takes a little time for a society to change its mind. Give the Arabs a little time. If you don't give them a little time — if you simply wage a war on them, or worse, if you leave them to a grinding famine, it will be WW3. Before you do this, read my Plague and Poisoning section. And read the parts about what happened after the Romans secured the Red Sea after Actium in 31BC. If we don't give the desperate land of no resources an out, the world may see the use of every weapon and disease known to man. You must give them a brief time to repent. And you must feed and provision them until all the new conversos can be moved.

If they all come over immediately

If mankind is able to put this phase of its existence behind it with the speed of an idea whose time has come, then you must forgive them all. It is simply not worth seeking revenge once the war has ended. And this certainly is/was a war — the war/ struggle/ jihad behind nearly all other wars.

Remember, Remember, Remember

North Korea and Iran are suicide puppet states. If they start a great nuclear or germ war now, it was the chosen harem Arabs behind it. If this happens, don't be distracted by the escape goats. Go after the people holding the puppet strings.

What if it drops dead?

What a stroke of luck it would be if Ishtar just drops dead like communism did. If that happens, give universal amnesty. Let's just all put Ishtar behind us and consider ourselves fortunate that there will be no WW3. If they all repent rapidly, let it end and count your blessings. Take away their excess wealth, all of which is stolen, but do not bankrupt them completely. Remember that Ishtar feeds on desperation, and if you make them desperate, then you will be helping Ishtar to live. We did not go after the communists for the crimes of their parents, and we should not go after the Arabs for the crimes of their parents. We should just let Ishtar, Islam, Judaism, and Catholicism die.

You know its gotta end

When is the right time to end it?

You Brothers all must know that your agenda is futile in the long run. Your own grandchildren will become the worst enemies of each other. Why don't you end it now?

No matter how far you have gone down the wrong road, turn back.

Mine is a long message

In total, the work is over 7,000 pages long, or about 2.8-million words. At 29 pages/day it will take about 8-months to read.

Take the red pill

In the Matrix film, the new guy Neo took a red pill to make the matrix stop. This message is the same sort of thing. If you keep reading you will awaken from the matrix. After that you will awaken from a parallel reality of interpretation, a reality mostly of disinformation and untrue explanations and excuses for incorrect beliefs.

Wake up

You must all wake up or Ishtar will take over and ruin the world again as it has done repeatedly for thousands of years.

Green and yellow symbolism

People are green if they are still living leaves on the Mideast tree of life — if they are still helping the cause of Ishtar. However if their lines (their children and grand children) stop being part of the tree of life, then they become yellow, like dead leaves. Then after a while, the metaphorical wind comes and “blows them away”. Now think of the yellow stars that “the Nazis” made the Jews of Europe wear. These yellow star people did not know what was going on. And they didn’t understand the “storm wind” that they faced. They also did not understand who was really behind the death camps.

Don’t let the green Mideast people blame the yellow Mideast people again

The word anti-semitism is misnomer. This is because what is really happening is that the green semites are trying to eliminate the yellow semites that are no longer loyal to Ishtar. It is a bit like in Star Wars mythology. The only real threat to the dark-side jehudi knights is the light-side jehudi knights. So the dark knights make lots of anti-jewish propaganda (with their light-sabers/ pens). This makes it seem that anti-jewish sentiments are widely held. Then the dark-side knights can eliminate large populations of light-side people making trouble for them.

Ishtar is a numen, a spirit that inhabits a place.

Ishtar has always been about the land of no resources, not the children and grandchildren of the people who earned a ticket out by being of service to Ishtar. Even among the first generation most children of Mideast emigrants want nothing to do with Ishtar. In other words, it is all mostly coming from the old country.

Make sure you’re punishing the right people

Make sure you’re punishing the right people, or you’ll double the injustice. Make sure you understand your enemy, the enemy of all humanity = eu•man•idi.

good•man•ideas. It is mostly the desperate race from the land of no resources. It is mostly these, and not the people born among you.

Make sure you’re punishing the right people, or you’ll double the injustice.

Aeschylus, The Eumenides, 179-197

"Apollo: Get out of the prophet's chamber now... [or I will] make you vomit up the black blood clots you have sucked from all the people you have murdered. This is no place for such as you: Where by your judgement, heads were cut off, eyes gouged out, boys castrated, huge stones placed upon people's chests, people impaled on spikes, and others had their extremities maimed [fingers and toes gnawed off] — the victims wailing for pity. You revolt the gods. Your look, your whole regalia gives you away. Your physical shape is guide to what you are, the like of whom should hole-up in the death-reeking cave of a lion, not in oracular interiors, like mine. Never rub your filth on the Prophet's shrine. Out then, you flock of goats without a herdsman. Out! No god will ever shepherd your brood with love."

Haruki Murakami, After Dark, Ch.9

"Like say an octopus, a giant octopus living way down deep at the bottom of the sea. It has this tremendously powerful life force, and a bunch of long undulating tentacles, and its heading somewhere, moving through the darkness of the ocean. I'm sitting there, listening to these court trials, and all I can see in my head is this creature. It takes on all kinds of different shapes. Sometimes it's the nation, and sometimes its the law, and sometimes it takes on shapes that are more difficult and dangerous than that. You can try cutting off its legs, but they just keep growing back. Nobody can kill it. It is too strong, and it lives to far down in the ocean. Nobody knows where its heart is. What I felt then was a deep terror, and a kind of hopelessness, a feeling that I could never run away from this thing, no matter how far I ran. And this thing, this creature, this thing doesn't give a damn that I'm me or you are you. In its presence, all human beings lose their names and faces. We all turn into signs, into numbers."
